Answer

I am

Second Interrogatory

Who purchased the farm in dispute in this cause from Dobson and to who was the deed executed

Answer

I purchased it for myself and the deed was executed to me.

Third Interogatory

Was there or not more than one deed executed by Dobson to you for this property, If yes, State why

Answer

There was a second deed, The first deed was taken from my pocket by Robert Chatterton and gave to his wife as he said to keep it for me, that it was a careless place to be in my pocket, I had just a few days before that got the deed from Ishamel Day. I loaned it to him to run out the line between Dr Dimmitt and me, I had sent Robert Chatterton to my coat pocket to get some papers for me, in a day or two afterwards, I had occasion to go to my coat, I mised my deed I asked Robert if he saw any deed in my pocket when he went to take out those papers. He said he did, he took it out and gave it to Josephine to lay away for me, that it was a very careless place to carry it, I told her to be careful and not lose it. That was in the month of August 1860 at Jericho, When Robert and we had a difficulty shortly after that, I told him that he had got to leave me that I wouldnt have any thing more to do with him, He told me that he had got my deed, to help myself, that I couldnt get it on record that if I would give him one thousand dollars ($1000.00) he would go, that it was that much damage to him moving down there I told him I never would give him another cent. I then tried to get my deed of Mrs Chatterton I asked her for it, she told me she hadnt got it, and hadnt seen it since I showed it to her at Kells Hill or Stockton, I dont know which they call it, Kells Hill we were living there then, I then went and took counsel and went to Mr Dobson, and got another deed, The second deed was the one I had put on record.

Fourth interogatory

For whom did you purchase this farm from
