The Spanish Drama, written for the Star; By the Author of the Review of Calaynos and Anne Bolyn.—Spanish Drama. Ah me miserum! not a day for months past could I regale myself with the columns of the Star without the "Spanish Drama" "sticking out a Feet." The author to have been properly appreciated, should have flourished at least three hundred years ago, in times of the "Spanish Drama;" and though in the play of the "Handsome Don Diego" he never could have been looked upon as a fair representative of the chief character in the play; yet in the "Comic Drama" of the "Pedant Squire," would be true to the life. His learning, like that of honest Domine Sampson, seems to be Pro di-gi-ous.—'Tis said "a little learning is a dangerous thing;" in times of the "Spanish Drama" a larger portion of it was most seriously so. For we read that Gattio, the first discoverer of the earth's rotatory motion, was imprisoned in the Inquisition for daring to advocate such heretical doctrines and forced to recant in public.—But our learned Reviewer, having no such fear before his eyes, in these days, week after week; Monsieur Tonson like, bores with the "Spanish Drama." May the Lord forgive him!—Prurient with a "Cacoethes Scribendi," he dashes on regardless alike of the patience of those who read, and the just rules of composition, which teach us that a metaphor is a figure founded entirely on the resemblance which one object bears to another. Now what possible resemblance can a "Mine of Patriotism and National History," have to anything eatable I am unable to divine. 'Tis true that Patriotism may have some semblance to drinking, particularly on a Fourth of July, and imbibition on that day might have caused fumy visions of "Spanish Drama" to dance before the fervid imagination of our Reviewer. But this "mine" that became so "insipid to the tastes." We must come to the conclusion, that when a substance (and a mine is rather a singular one) becomes insipid to the tastes of people, they must have eaten some portion of it. Powers of digestion! what stomachs they must have! not only very copacious, but their digestive organs equal to those of an Ostrich. The Reviewer says that he found pleasure in the pursuit of his object, and it is now given forth in "Sorrow." Truly here is a most opposite state of existence; a commingling of feeling, producing a sensation of pleasing melancholy, highly calculated to render the possessor an object of peculiar interest to his friends. Lastly, he invokes his own happiness; and begs us to pardon his faults. The first invocation I trust will be granted, and am pleased to hear that he has the grace to pray, even for himself; his faults will be most cheerfully pardoned, provided he reviews no more "Spanish Drama."

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Easton Academy, held at the Academy building, on Saturday, 19th ult., the following resolutions submitted by Doct. Cox, were unanimously passed.

Resolved, That in parting with Rev. JOHN NEELY, who has just resigned his office as Teacher of the Easton Academy, which he has occupied for the last eight years, we take pleasure in commending him to the favourable notice of the community among whom his future residence may be located

Resolved, That we entertain for Mr. Neely the kindest feelings and best wishes—and take pleasure in tendering this testimony to his faithfulness and ability as a Teacher, and his varied and profound attainments as a scholar.

By order, W. B. CLARK,
Sec. B. T. E. A.

A telegraphic despatch from New Orleans states that a fight occurred between Gen. Quitman and Senator Foote, at Sledgeville, Miss., a few days since, but neither was seriously injured. They are both candidates for Governor of Mississippi.

The Philadelphia Inquirer states that four persons were murdered, and the house in which the crime was committed burned to ground, in Bedford county, Pa., on Sunday morning. One of the murdered men was a contractor on the canal, and is supposed to have had $3000 in his possession—Clipper.

PLEASANT DRINK.—It is said that a wholesome drink for the season is one teaspoonful of cream of tartar to one quart of water, sweetened with loaf sugar. It makes a drink not only pleasant to the taste, but one that quenches thirst much more effectually than ice water. Those who have tried it extensively pronounce it a very effective preventive of dysentery and similar complaints common in the heat of summer.—Clipper.

TO THE PEOPLE OF TALBOT COUNTY, MARYLAND.

Having been solicited by a number of my fellow citizens to offer myself as a candidate for the office of State's Attorney for Talbot County, I deem it a duty which I owe to them as well as to myself to make known to you the position which I desire to occupy, and the course which I intend to pursue.

The great change which has taken place since the adoption of the new Constitution in the mode of filling the various offices which were heretofore supplied by appointment and commission from the Executive, is well known to you all. The Governor having been stripped of his patronage in this respect, and that power being now in the hands of the people, there can be no doubt, but that it will be wisely managed, and judiciously executed. That infamous system of bribery and corruption at our elections, which has heretofore exercised such a deleterious influence over the morals of our citizens, and which has so long been a curse to our country, will, it is hoped, be forever put an end to in our State, by that most excellent and popular feature in our new Constitution, which prohibits every man who is elected to an office, from entering upon the duties of that office, until he has first taken the oath prescribed by the 4th section under the 1st article of the new Constitution, viz:—'That he has not in any manner violated the provisions thereof in relation to bribery of voters, or preventing legal, or procuring illegal votes to be given.' The rights and claims of all will now be put upon a fair and equal basis; and the interest of the whole community will be properly respected and truly represented. Is it not a fact too well known and understood by every one, and particularly by those who have watched the struggles of political aspirants for office, that the desires and wishes of the whole community are not always truly represented? I appeal to you all if what I state is not undeniably true in respect to all parties? Is it not, fellow citizens, the course which is generally pursued in the appointment of your officers to places of trust and profit? Do you not know the fact? Is it not time, then, that a check should be thrown around party feelings and prejudices, when they are permitted to blend our reason and influence our actions to such an extent, as to cause us to vote for no man, (not even for the most petty and most insignificant office) unless he happens to be of the same political cast as ourselves?

Among the greatest objections which have been urged by those who were opposed to the new Constitution, is the election of the Judges by the people. It has been said that the tendency to corruption on the bench will be greatly increased, and why? What reason is assigned for it?—Because, say they, men will make a Party thing of it, and our Judges will be composed of the most active partizans, which will in all probability influence their decisions. I was in favor of the change, because I did not apprehend the danger. I have too much confidence in the intelligence and integrity of the people to think that they will suffer their party feelings and prejudices to hazard their interests as a community. In the election of Judges, Registers of Wills, States Attorneys, &c., there can be no possible issue whatever involved. There is nothing but the real interest of the community at stake; and those who have the right of suffrage being neither bound down by party ties, nor swayed by any political principle whatever, are the best and most impartial judges of what their true interests are. Hence there can now be no objection urged against him who is seeking an office at the hands of the people, from coming out boldly and and announcing himself as a candidate for the office he desires, and clearly defines his position. It is for these reasons that I have adopted the course of informing my fellow citizens of my intention. And I have thought it far the most honest and candid way of dealing with you, to do so before any action is taken by a Convention of the county, lest it might be said that I was disappointed in getting a nomination. I do not know that either party intend to make nominations for the various offices alluded to. I must confess, that I for one, am opposed to nominations for those offices where there are no political issues at stake. It is for this reason that I have not sought the nomination of the office for which I ask your suffrage, nor will I accept it from ANY party. I offer myself to you, my fellow citizens of Talbot, as an Independent candidate. In doing so, however, I desire it to be expressly understood that I make no sacrifice of any political principle which I have imbibed. It is generally known to you all that I belong to the Democratic party. I like the principles of that party. In my humble efforts at our mass meetings and else where, I have contended for them, and I expect to do so again whenever occasion may require. Whenever the real issues of the two parties become involved, you will always find me in the ranks of the Democratic school.

With these views, then, I seek not to ascertain what may be the feeling and opinions of a caucus, but I desire to know your opinions—your feelings and your wishes. It is your judgement that we are now to abide by. You are now our only censors, and you are better qualified to judge of the motives of those who seek your suffrage—to inspect their actions—to know their qualifications—to weigh well their claims to office, and to reward those whom you think the most deserving. As the office is to come from you, I make my application directly to you, and to you and you alone do I make any appeal. I have never been appointed nor elected to an office of trust and profit, nor have I ever applied for one.

For the first time in my life, then, do I appear before you as a candidate for office. I flatter myself that I have some little acquaintance with the duties and responsibilities of the office for which I ask your suffrage. As to my claims for the office, you are to be my judges. As to my right of application, this I presume will not be denied. And as to the course which I have adopted, and the means which I have taken to make known to you my intentions, I believe you will do me the credit to say that it is a fair and honorable one. As the appointment comes not now from the Executive, but directly and immediately from your hands, it is to you I present my application. Should you see fit to elect me to the office, it shall be my constant aim and effort, by untiring zeal and industry, to discharge all its duties and requirements, and to make perfect myself in all its branches. Most respectfully,

Your obedient servant,
WM. B. CLARKE.

For the Easton Gazette.

MR. EDITOR.—I see by a recent communication in your paper signed "Eastern Shore Steam Boat Company," that there is an effort made by this Great and Powerful Company, which was formed some few months ago, and palmed on the public for the alone purpose, as set forth by them, to put down all monopoly and extortion—to justify themselves in their enormous charge for their wharf at Oxford, and to charge me with a breach of decorum and propriety in stopping at their wharf on the public waters of Maryland Wonderful consistency in those patrons of consistency and decorum! They have forgotten that one of their Captains not only used Capt. Taylor's wharf at Cambridge without permission, but forcibly broke down his gates, and took possession of his wharf—a very correct example of law and correct principles—whew!—Take care you that live in glass houses how you throw stones.

But to the facts in the case:—I first deny that the law, as stated by them, allows two cents per ton for wharfage; the law allows one cent per ton only. But aside from law, what is usage and common justice? Mr. Little, my mate, formerly mate of the Steamboat Maryland, informs me that the Maryland, a much larger boat than the Champion, was only required to pay, and only did pay fifty cents, for each stoppage at the Oxford wharf, whereas the enormous charge of three dollars for each stoppage of the Champion at Oxford amounts to a prohibition; and consequently shows to the public in what way this Great Eastern Shore Steam Boat Company would take to put down monopoly and extortion. At Church Creek and West River we pay fifty dollars per annum for wharves, far superior to the Oxford wharf, and stop as often as we please. With these facts staring this Great Company in the face, will they pretend to say that they do not purpose to make any charge which may operate to diminish or restrain public travel. They ought to have added, provided they travel in one of the Great Eastern Shore Steam Boat Company's Boats.

Without any attempt, as stated by this veracity loving company, to work upon public sympathy, I have stated facts for the public, and offer my boat for their comfort and convenience as the People's Boat, willing to share an honest competition in navigating the public waters of Maryland, which I shall do fearless of all attempted monopolies. By order of

HENRY J. STRANDBERG,
Captain of the Champion Steam Boat Company.

IN THE MATTER OF THE PETITION OF WILLIAM ARRINGDALE.

THE object of this petition is to obtain the application of the share of the Real Estate of John Ruth Downes, dec'd., assigned by the Auditor to the devisees of John D. Green, dec'd., to the payment of the debts of the said Green upon the allegation of an insufficiency of his personal Estate for that purpose.

The petition states that in 1827, one John Garey of Talbot County died, leaving a will duly executed and admitted to probate, by which he appointed James Chambers his executor, that said Chambers renounced, and administration C. T. A. was granted to Isaac Chambers, who gave Bond with James Chambers and John D. Green as his sureties and proceeded to administer the Estate, but his letters were revoked and he died without having passed any account. That administration d. b. n., on the Estate of John Garey was then granted to John Arringdale who proceeded to execute the trust, but also died without having passed any accounts, and on the 9th February, 1830, administration D. B. N., C. T. A. was granted to William Arringdale, who proceeded to settle the Estate, and passed two accounts, by the last of which passed on the 11th September, 1832, he appears to have overpaid the Estate, in so far as assets had come to his hands by the sum of 69¾ cents. The petition also states that on the 26th November 1827, Isaac Chambers returned an inventory of Garey's Estate which was appraised at $526,18, and on the 16th June 1828 a list of sales showing a loss on the appraisement of $13,23, so that Chambers was then charged, and so remained charged at the time of his death, with $512,95. That of this sum John Arringdale received from the adm'r. of Chambers in notes of hand $210,88 which were received and accounted for by William Arringdale, and at May Term, 1829 of Talbot County Court, recovered Judgment against James Chambers and John D. Green, as sureties of the said Isaac Chambers for $302,07 with int. from the 29th November, 1827 and costs, this sum being the balance of Garey's estate in the hands of said Isaac, after crediting the notes aforesaid; that upon an execution issued on this judgment $46,-70, applicable to its reduction were made out of the property of Isaac Chambers, that afterwards John Green died, having by will, duly executed to pass Real Estate, appointed Richard Spencer, his Executor, and at Nov. Term, 1837 of Talbot County Court, judgment was rendered against said Spencer as Executor in favor of William Arringdale adm'r. d. b. n., of Garey for $281,97, the balance due upon the judgment aforesaid against James Chambers and John D. Green, with interest from the 22d May 1829 and costs; that the whole of this judgment it till due and unpaid, that at the time of the rendition of said judgment against James Chambers, he was utterly insolvent, an execution issued thereon against him, having proved fruitless, and that he is long since dead, his Estate having been and still being hopelessly insolvent.

The petition then states that in 1816, one John Ruth Downes died; having by will duly executed to pass real estate, and admitted to probate according to law, devised his real estate to his wife for life, and after her death one undivided fourth thereof to his sister Rachael Green; that the wife of Downes survived him and died in 1849, that long before her death Rachel Green died intestate, leaving the said John D. Green her only child and sole heir at law, that said Green by his will devised to Mary Anna Spencer, Emma Spencer and William Spencer, children of Richard Spencer, aforesaid, all his interest as such heir at law, in the real estate of said Downes, charged however, with the payment of his debts. And that said Spencer as Executor so proceeded in the settlement of said Green's estate, that he compromised and by various arrangements settled with the creditors of his testator other than the said William Arringdale, their several claims against his estate, which was largely insolvent, and afterwards removed with his children as aforesaid, to Alabama or elsewhere beyond the limits of this State, where they still reside, leaving the said judgment against him in full force, and the indebtedness of said Green's estate wholly due and unpaid, and that Mary Anna Spencer has married and is now wife of John C. Keener, and Emma Spencer has married ——— Holcomb.

The petition then sets forth that under the decree in this cause the real estate of the said John Ruth Downes has been sold, charges that the interest of Rachel Green therein which descended to said John D. Green was bound by the Judgment in favor of John Arringdale against said Green and others, and should now be applied in payment of that against said Green's Executor in favor of William Arringdale, the personal estate of said Green having proved entirely insufficient for the payment of his debts, and this interest having been expressly charged by said Green with said debts, and prays that one fourth of the proceeds of said sale may be applied to the payment of the petitioners of said judgment and of such other claim as may be shown to be entitled to participate therein.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the petitioner by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Talbot County, once in each successive week for one month before the fifteenth day of July next, give notice to the said Richard Spencer Executor of John D. Green, dec'd., John C. Keener and Mary Anna his wife, ——— Holcomb and Emma his wife, and William Spencer, now residents as before stated, of the object and substance of this petition, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by Solicitor on or before the fifteenth day of November next to answer the premises and show cause if any they have, why relief should not be granted as prayed.
