April Term 1868

What amount of purchases did you make for the store, name the persons from whom you purchased, and the dates and amounts

Answer

All that I remember of it is the fifty dollars, but the store had been replenished from time to time from sales made in the store

One hundred and first cross interrogatory

How many acres were in the Tennessee tract

Answer

Sixteen hundred acres. I think that was the amount he said

One hundred and second cross interrogatory

What County was it in, near what town

Answer

That I dont know. I dont remember he told me at the time. That I dont remember

One hundred and third cross interrogatory

Was it on a railroad or river, where there or not improvements on it

Answer

He did not tell me whether it was on a railroad or river, but he said it was in a section where it was fine grazing all winter, and it would make a most splended sheep grazing farm There was no improvements on it

One hundred and fourth cross interrogatory

Do you remember at how much per acre it was estimated

Answer

There was nothing said about the price or value per acre.

One hundred and fifth cross interrogatory

April Term 1868

Have you ever seen it or been in the neighborhood Had you ever been in the State of Tennessee

Answer

I never had, never. He got a book which gave a description of lands in different States, and the book said it was a fine quality of land. I forget what the name of the book was, but I have often seen it

One hundred and sixth cross interrogatory

When Robert was taken to Albany did you become his bail and for what sum

Answer

I did I dont remember how much it was, Judge Beach and me were on it together. I think it was $600 to $700 but I wont be positive

One hundred and seventh cross interrogatory

Have you ever heard of the case since you became bail

Answer

Yes I went up two or three times and had it adjourned & Judge Beach with Sam Courtney the States Attorney (they were very intimate friends) they got it disposed of in some way I dont know how it was, and it never was called up that ever I heard of.

One hundred and eighth cross interrogatory

Did you not procure a bail peice, and get Robert arrested on it in New York, while he and you were there attending to the taking of evidence under a commission issued in this cause

Answer

No Sir the man Robert had swindled and to whom he owed money, or his brother, I think it was