April Term 1868

myself; he stopped at my place as he drove down, I think it was on his road down. He had some farming implements and some seed oats as well as I recollect upon the wagon. I do not recollect what they were now. No more than Robert told me on a former occasion I asked him what they cost he said he didnt know that John had bought them in New York and he didnt know what he had paid for them. Oh I am mistaken about one thing, it was New York or Philadelphia I am not positive which one

Third interrogatory

At what time and at what place did this conversation between you and Robert Chatterton take place about the horses

Answer

I dont remember the time, or the place now I recollect it was shortly afterwards on one occasion when I see Robert driving them. It might have been when he had them down at mill on one occasion, I am not positive about that.

Did you see Mrs. Josephine Chatterton soon after that fire. If yea state when and where you saw her, how she was dressed and what she said about the fire, and the circumstances attending the fire

Answer

She came to our house soon after the fire, sometime near morning the same night as the fire. She had on a night dress with a shawl round her shoulders, a large blanket shawl, She had on a pair of gentlemens slippers, I dont remember much that she said about it. I heard her say that John had thrown her a porte monaie that contained his deed and some of his important papers, and she was, and she did not pick them up as she was did not take time to pick them up. That is all I know about it. I dont remember

Fourth interrogatory

Who was present at the time this conversation took place and to whom did Mrs. Chatterton address her conversation

Answer

My Uncle, Dr Dimmitt, and Mother, who else was present I dont remember. My Mother she was speaking to.

Whereupon complainants Solicitor exhibited his cross interrogatories to be propounded to said witness
