To the Voters of the Sixth Congressional District.

We are authorized to announce Col. JOSEPH S. COTTMAN, as a candidate for a seat in the next Congress of the United States.

TO THE VOTERS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

I beg leave, Fellow-citizens, through the medium of the press, to offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election for the office of Register of Wills for Talbot County.

After an experience of nearly eight years in public business, during which time I have discharged the various duties of County Clerk and Register of Wills, in the absence of these respective officers, I feel that I can, with some degree of confidence, present myself before you as a candidate for the place I seek.

I am fully aware of the responsibility attached to this important office, but by daily experience I have become familiar with its onerous duties and complex details, and relying on my past conduct for support, I can with confidence rest the result in your hands.

Before closing, candor compels me to announce to you that my political sentiments are in unison with those of the Whig party, of which I am a member, and I have uniformly expressed my opposition to party nominations for local offices involving no political principle.

Should I be so fortunate, Fellow-citizens, as to be honored by an election to this office, I will by strict attention to its duties endeavor to manifest my gratitude to you for this evidence of your confidence and kindness.

Being no politician and understanding not the art of electioneering, I now leave my fate in your hands. Very respectfully,

JNO. DONOVAN.

Aug. 21, 1851. tf

TO THE FREEMEN OF TALBOT COUNTY.

I offer myself as an Independent Candidate for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot County:

In presenting myself, Fellow Citizens, before you, for this responsible and important office, created under the new Constitution of the State, which I contributed my mite to bring into being at the polls. I deem it but respectful to address you briefly upon the occasion, as I shall have but few opportunities perhaps of making myself personally known to or mingling much with you during the Canvass. It would afford me great pleasure to meet you at all the public meetings that may be called or held during the Campaign; but it is well known to you that my time now as for years past, and my labour belongs to another, my employer, Mr. James Parrott, the present Clerk of the County. It has been my lot, (at which I do not murmer,) from fifteen years of age to the present time to labour unremittingly at the Clerk's desk for the support of a widowed mother and her helpless family and myself; and if a kind Providence but grant me health and ability, I expect to continue to do so, whether elected to the present office for which I am aspiring or not. It is known to some of you, Fellow citizens, that at fifteen years of age I entered the office of Clerk of the Court of Appeals for the Eastern Shore, then held by Mr. Henry E. Bateman, one of my present competitors for the place I now seek at your hands. Those familiar with the business of that office know that for years, young as I was, I attended almost entirely in the interval of the terms to the duties of the office, Mr. Bateman giving but a small portion of his time to its duties. I do not mention this as any charge against Mr. Bateman—far from it. His interest doubtless required his attention elsewhere, and he felt called upon to take that course. I will further do Mr. Bateman the justice to say that during my service with him he always treated me with the greatest kindness, and warmly recommended me to my present employer. As to the manner of my discharging my duties in that office, I can appeal to all who had any knowledge of it or me, for the fidelity and attention I bestowed on it in his absense; after devoting more than two years of my youthful days there, I entered the County Clerk's office, under Mr. Parrott, where I remained nearly two years, when from ill health, I was compelled for a few months to try another occupation. I again returned to the Court of Appeals office, under Mr. Bateman, and conducted it nearly two years for him. I then again, in the year 1848 entered the Clerk's office where I have devoted unceasingly, my time and attention. I candidly confess that all my attention has been bestowed upon the duties of the office from its lowest to its highest details, during the recess of the Courts in the drudgery of the office, and during the session of the Courts in its active duties, in order to qualify myself for the place I am now soliciting at your hands. In what manner I have discharged my duties, with what fidelity to my employer and to the public in his absence, those of my Fellow-citizens who have attended the Courts and had business in the office, the Judges of the Court and Mr. Parrott may be appealed to, and can answer.—I have sought to do my full duty conscientiously, as I shall always do. It is not for me to say whether I have succeeded or not. My report is now made to you for confirmation or condemnation, as the Judges from whom in our free country there is no appeal. Under our institutions, happily, the road to advancement is open to all men. Merit, character and qualifications are the only requirements for office. I have heard my age objected to as the only bar to my preferment. The constitution requires but the age of twenty-one years for the important office of Delegate to the general assembly of Maryland, and various other high offices, as also for this clerkship. The age of twenty five years only, is required for Congress. I am now nearly twenty-four years of age, and if I have the character and fitness and necessary qualifications for office, I cannot imagine why this objection should be urged against me.

I feel it my duty, Fellow-citizens, in frankness and candor, to make known to you that from principle, I have adopted the Whig faith and creed, and have always asserted my principles through the ballot box. I accord to every man freedom of opinion and action, respectfully and properly carried out, and claim only the same for myself. I deem it proper further to state, that upon principle I was opposed to nominations for this and other county offices, and respectfully and openly avowed my opinions from the first day after the adoption of the new Constitution.

I now, Fellow-citizens, in conclusion, rest my cause with you. It is not to be disguised that the issue is to me an important one in all respects. If elected, I shall ever be deeply grateful for the honor and favour done me, and pledge my every effort for the faithful discharge of my duty in the Clerkship. If defeated, I shall meet my fate, I hope, with fortitude, and must again return to my daily duty at some desk as a deputy Clerk, as the people will have so decreed. SAMUEL T. HOPKINS.

OUTRAGE.—We learn from the Star, that two negro men, Levin Anderson and Isaac Tilghman, committed a violent assault upon a servant man of Dr. Clough's, on Thursday night week, in the kitchen of Mr. Luther J. The perpetrators of the outrage were arrested.

RUNAWAY on Sunday last, from Benny's woods Camp Meeting, a bright mulatto negro woman; about five feet two inches in height, named MILCHA GIBSON, and about 22 years of age. She is so nearly white, that with the use of a little powder, she can pass herself off very easily for a white woman. She has grey eyes, freckle face, dark brown hair, and rather a flat nose. One of her front teeth is a little decayed; with that exception, her teeth are good. Her form is unusually good—indeed, she may be said to be handsome. It is supposed that she left the Camp ground in either the steamer Dupont, Mary Washington, or the Lancaster, from Dover ferry. I will give $100 reward if she is taken in the State, and lodged in the jail at Easton, Md.; or I will give $150 reward if she is taken out of the State, and lodged in said jail, so that I may get her again. THE RUFFIN PREMIUM!

OPEN to competition by the farmers of Maryland, and by those of Virginia, East of the Blue Ridge mountains. In illustration of one class of subjects, to wit: Experimental investigation, recommended by EDMUND RUFFIN, Esq., in his lecture delivered before the Agricultural Society of Talbot county, Md., in November last, and to test a general practice of questionable utility, and by which, if it be wrong, as it is supposed to be, the value of millions of dollars may be annually lost to the farmers of the United States. Mr. Ruffin has presented to those Societies the following valuable premiums, to be awarded as follows:

For the best set of experiments to be made in 1851, serving to show the degree of injury (if any) caused to the product and value of Indian corn by stripping off the green blades for fodder—or by cutting off the tops above the ears—or by both these operations, as usual, compared with cutting off the entire plant close to the ground at a somewhat later period, and securing the whole in shocks—and all these compared with corn left standing and entire.—The Farmer's Register in 10 volumes handsomely bound and appropriately inscribed—$55,00.

For the second, third and fourth grade of experiments, one bound copy of Ruffin's Essay on Calcareous manures to each.

Note.—Each space for the different observations shall not be less than ¼ of an acre. The measure and weight of the grain from each space shall be ascertained precisely. The quantities of other provender, its condition and value, which may be ascertained by estimate, and with such approximation to precision as the stated circumstances may admit. The dates of each operation to be stated, and for each the apparent degree of maturity, or other condition of the corn.

Each experimenter shall measure his several parcels, and shall shell and measure and weigh one half of each parcel on, or about the 1st of January next, and shall shell and measure and weigh the other half, on or about the 1st of May next.

In awarding the premium, the judges will have regard to all the circumstances, and decide in favor of the competitor whose experiments shall best combine a judicious plan of conduct, accurate procedure in details, full and accurate results, and also such testimony of the important facts as the circumstances will admit of being furnished.

Five competent and disinterested gentlemen will in due time be selected to act as Judges. Competitors will report on or before the 20th of May next, by addressing at Easton, Md.,

M. TILGHMAN GOLDSBOROUGH,
Sec'y Board of Trustees of the Md. Ag. Society for the Eastern Shore, and DAVID KERR, Sec'y of Farmer's Inspecting Association of Talbot county.

N. B.—Newspapers in Maryland and Virginia, East of the Blue Ridge mountains, favorable to the "promotion of agriculture," will please publish the above.
