" Act of 1852. Filed with the Commissioner as —

April Term 1868

admitted by the Solicitor for Defendant. K"

Bernard Fort et al } In the Circuit Court for Howard vs } County, In Equity
Josiah Groves } The Defendant admits the allegations of the Bill of Complaint in relation to the Act of Assembly of 1852, and the proceedings there under, Except that the defendant does not admit, but denies that a road street or highway was thereby opened or dedicated to the public to a greater width than the actual bed of the road at the time of the passage of said act. I. S. Tyson Solct. for Deft.

Agreement of Solicitor in said cause as to the admission of certain records as testimony as therein stated, filed with the Commissioner. §§455

It is agreed that the Howard County Land Record containing and showing the Division of the real estate of the late George Elliott may be read and used at the trial of this cause, instead of procuring and filing a duly certified copy of the same under seal, under the Commission to take testimony & to have the same effect that such copy would have had the same been regularly and duly filed subject to all exceptions that might be taken to the copy itself.

This agreement in the Equity case of Fort et al vs Groves, to be filed by the Commissioners to take testimony
