FARMER'S COLUMN.

From the Plough Loom and Anvil.

THE BENEFIT OF MAKING A MARKET ON THE LAND FOR THE PRODUCTS OF THE LAND.

THE strawberry trade of New Jersey is much greater than would be supposed. It is said that on one night of last week one hundred and thirty-two wagons full of the fruit passed over the Hoboken ferry, principally from the vicinity of Hackensack, Paterson, New-Durham, and Bergen. One garderer near Bergen is said to have cleared $1500 this season. A large profit is reported to be derived also from the manufacture of baskets in which the fruit is conveyed to market, although they are sold at the low rate of one cent each.—Philadelphia North American.

Why has not every part of the country its trade in strawberries and in those other products of the earth that from their delicacy or their bulk will not bear carriage? Because the farmers and planters are almost every where determined that the market shall not be brought to their doors, and equally determined to close those markets which were created under the benign influence of the tariff of 1842. With the growth of mills and furnaces throughout the country, there would be made by them a market for fresh milk, and veal, and strawberries, and apples, and the thousands of other things that could not be sent to distant markets, and with the growth of that market there would be a corresponding growth in the value of land; and then the farmers would grow rich, and they would cease to be compelled to fly to distant lands, the cost of transportation from which absorbs nearly the whole value of the product. But recently we were told of the enormous richness of the lands of Ohio, and yet the farmers of that State have already reduced the average crop of wheat to less than twelve bushels to the acre, the consequence of which is given in the following paragraph, which we take from an exchange paper:—

EMIGRATION TO MICHIGAN.—The disposition to move West is hard to repress even among the buck-eyes, and thousands are annually leaving Ohio for newer homes at various points all along to the Pacific.

Every man that goes out from Ohio tends to diminish the value of all the land of that State, and every man that comes into it tends to increase that value. Population makes the food come from the rich soils, and makes the land-owner and laborer rich. Depopulation forces men back to the poor soils, and impoverishes both the laborer and the land-owner.

RESOURCES OF MARYLAND.

WE mentioned last week the discovery of lead and plumbago, in the coal region near Frostburg. We have since seen specimens of the same minerals from a different portion of the county, near Oldtown.—Exchange paper.

Scarcely a day elapses that does not bring with it intelligence of new mineral discoveries, all tending to prove the ability of the country to supply itself with every thing needed for the rapid improvement of the condition of its people, and for its own advance in wealth and power; and yet, of what advantage is it? The policy of the country is adverse to the development of its resources. It refuses to make a market on the land for the products of the land. It imports coal while possessing it in quantity compared with which that possessed by Great Britain scarcely deserves to be mentioned. It imports iron and lead and copper, while possessing the means of supplying them at a lower rate than elsewhere in the world, provided only that its farmers can be taught to see that every ton of our own coal that is mined, every ton of our own iron ore and every pig of our own lead that is smelted, furnishes a market for our own raw products of the earth to the whole extent of its value, and in doing so gives a value to both labor and land; while every ton of coal, iron, or lead, that is imported produces a necessity for sending from the land its raw produce, the refuse of which is to be consumed abroad, to the depreciation of both labor and land.—Ib.

Another Scientific Wonder!
DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S
GREAT DYSPEPSIA CURER!

THE TRUE
DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR GASTRIC JUICE

Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., No. 11, North Eighth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINT, CONSTIPATION, and DEBILITY, curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of this Fluid, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

This is a GREAT NATIONAL REMEDY for INDIGESTION, and DYSPEPSIA, curing after Nature's own Method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice. PEPSIN is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an ARTIFICIAL DIGESTIVE FLUID, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice, in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a COMPLETE and PERFECT SUBSTITUTE for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of INDIGESTION and DYSPEPSIA are removed just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of DEBILITY, EMACIATION, NERVOUS DECLINE and DYSPEPTIC CONSUMPTION, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The scientific evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree CURIOUS and REMARKABLE.

BARON LIEBIG, in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid analagous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

DR. PEREIRA, in his famous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Fowler & Wells, New York, page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are fewer higher authorities than Dr. Pereira.

Dr. COMBE, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding every thing else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomach of living animals, which proved completely successful."

Dr. GRAHAM, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "it is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process."

Professor DUNGLISON, of the Jefferson College, Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject. His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice, obtained from the living human stomach and from animals are well known. "In all cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

AS A DYSPEPSIA CURER,

DR. HOUGHTON'S preparation of PEPSIN has produced the most marvelous effects, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the very verge of the grave. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement—but authenticated certificates have been given of more than TWO HUNDRED REMARKABLE CURES, in Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone.—These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great NERVOUS ANTIDOTE, and particularly useful for tendency to billious disorder, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, or badly treated Fever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, Mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles Health with Intemperance.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS.

There is no form of OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS which it does not seem to reach and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it GIVES INSTANT RELIEF! A single dose removes all the unpleasant symptoms, and it only needs to be repeated for a short time, to make these good effects permanent.—PURITY OF BLOOD and VIGOR OF BODY follow at once. It is particularly excellent in cases of Nausea, Vomiting, Cramps, Soreness of the pit of the Stomach, distress after eating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness, Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emaciation, Weakness, tendency to Insanity, Suicide, &c.

Price, ONE DOLLAR per bottle. One bottle will often effect a lasting cure.
