October Term 1868

cannot say as to date for sometimes they are not dated the day of their appearance that sometimes the bills are dated a head of the date of their appearance or the time they are posted, that the said Exhibit was printed in his Office and altered in his Office says the 1st insertion was on the 18th of February 1864 says there was a Mistake in the advertisement that it was afterwards changed from Thursday or Tuesday the 10th to Tuesday the 15th that there was three regular insertions of the advertisement after the 25th of Feby which was the date of the change of the date of the advertisement.

J. H. Emerson, 1 day 75c

Answer of J. H. Emerson to 1st Cross Interrogatory he Says the bill exhibit 1 was changed in lead pencil from the 10th to the 15th day of March 1864

(Agreement of Counsel filed) J. H. Emerson

J. P. J. Hubbard a witness of lawful age being Sworn deposes and Says in answer to the first Interrogatory.

Answer to 1st Interrogatory, Says he knows the farm in Controversy, has known it 10 or 15 years, Says he should think the farm was worth in 1864 on the 15 of March $600. J. P. J. Hubbard.

Answer of J. P. J. Hubbard to 1st Cross Interrogatory, he Says there is a dwelling house on the farm.

2nd Int. Says he thinks according to his best judgment there was Seventy or Eighty acres, only knows from representations of others, has never seen the land run out 3rd Int. Says he thinks the house and fences were in ordinary Condition.

4th Int. Says he does not know it might have been three Weeks or a Month, Says he does not live far from it, passes around it occasionly, Say he never went around it and scrutinized it that with the examination he gave it he thought it worth $600.

October Term 1868

5th Int Says he was in Denton the day it was sold came up to the Sale or where it was about to be made, that there appeared to be a general Contention that he went into the Clerks Office supposing that the Sale would not amount to anything.

6th Int, Say he does not know who began it there appeared to be a general Contention between Mr A. J. Willis Mr Robert Butler, Mr Thos. H. Jorey and Mr J. D. Kemp, Witness Says further that he did not think there would be any Sale, Mr Jorey argued that the Sale would be a good one 7th Int. Says he does not remember, Says further that the Contention was at the Second Sale from what he heard one of the Mr Kemps say but does not know.

2 days 9 Miles each. J. P. J. Hubbard.

A. A. Griffith being Sworn deposes and Says in answer to the 1st Int. Says he knows the farm in Controversy has been on it and around it occasionally, Says he does not know the size of the farm but that if there was as many acres of it as was mentioned in the advertisement that it ought to be worth on the 15th of March 1864 $550 to 600 and cheap enough at those figures, that he considers it more valuable than if it was a Mile or two further back from the road, Aaron A. Griffith.

Answers of A. A. Griffith to 1st Cross Interrogatory

To 1st Cross Int he Says there was a dwelling house fencing and Some apple trees and Some Sort of out buildings, does not know whether it was a Stable or barn house the new part of the dwelling he has