Consideration of the sum of twenty thousand Dollars lawful money to be paid to the said John Glenn or to his use as is hereinafter stated and provided in manner following, to wit: the sum of five hundred dollars part thereof within one year from the twentieth day of September one thousand Eight hundred and thirty four with all interest on said principal sum of twenty thousand Dollars, the payment of the said Interest to be made in quarter yearly instalments, accounting from the said twentieth day of September One thousand Eight hundred and thirty four and thereafter the sum of three hundred and seventy five Dollars quarter yearly, together with Interest on such part of the principal ~~on such part of the princi-pal~~ as may from time to time remain unpaid and so on until the whole of said sum of twenty thousand Dollars and Interest thereof shall have been satisfied and paid. It has nevertheless been agreed that the said Charles Crook Junior, as trustee of his said wife, or the said Sarah Ann Crook or her representatives may, instead of the payments hereinbefore mentioned and provided for discharge the whole purchase or Consideration money aforesaid by the payment to the said John Glenn, or to and for his use as is hereafter expressed of the sum of sixteen thousand dollars in manner following that is to say the sum of Eight thousand dollars, with legal interest thereon from the tenth day of October one thousand Eight hundred and thirty four within ninety days from the twentieth day of September One thousand Eight hundred and thirty four, and the further sum of Eight thousand Dollars, with legal interest thereon from the said tenth day of October, one thousand Eight hundred and thirty four, within six months from the aforesaid twentieth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and thirty four, it has been further agreed that so long as the debt, or any part thereof owing from the said John Glenn to the President and Directors of the Union Bank of Maryland and for securing the payment whereof a Mortgage was heretofore executed by him to them of the above described and other property shall remain unsatisfied the said Charles Crook Junior, and his wife, or his or her legal representatives shall be at liberty to make any or all the payments as before provided to the said President and Directors of the Union Bank of Maryland, or to their assigns, in discharge of the said Mortgage, instead of making the said payments to the said John Glenn, the said payments when so made by the said Charles Crook Junior, and wife, or by either of them, or the legal representatives of the said Sarah Ann Crook, to the President and Directors aforesaid, or to their assigns, shall be deemed and considered as payment of so much of the purchase or Consideration money agreed on between the Obligor and Obligees in this bond for the property and premises hereinbefore discribed, And whereas there has been prepared for execution and is intended to bear even date herewith, a deed of Mortgage from the said Charles Crook Junior, and wife to the said John Glenn of and for all that piece or parcel of ground situate and lying in the City of Baltimore aforesaid, and at the South East intersection of Monument and Little Constitution Streets, which is discribed in a Bond of Conveyance from Stewart Brown and Mary Lancaster to the said Charles Crook (in trust for his said wife and subject to the power and limitation therein expressed,) dated the sixteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore County