October Term 1868

after you contracted to purchase the factory from Mr Glenn in 1834, and you gave it up. If yea, state what part of it was done during that time?

Answer, "The putting two stories on the factory was done several years before Mr Glenn had anything to do with the Mortgage, the repairs to the machinery was immediately after the date of the mortgage of 1834."

Twenty ninth Interrogatory, How did Mr Glenn first get the factory, and when?

Answer, By suit at law, after he closed the previous mortgage".

Thirtieth Interrogatory, Was it before you contracted with him 1834.

Answer, O, Yes,"

Adjourned again, met November 12th 1866 at Jarvis Spencer's Esqr's Office, and in the presence of the Solicitors of the respective parties, at the hour of two O'clock, took the following evidence.

Examination of Charles Crook, resumed by Mr Spencer for the Complainants!

Thirty first Interrogatory, Did you mean to say that you were positively not in possession of the factory at the time of writing your letter to Mr Glenn in 1842, or that you were uncertain about it!

Answer, "I am certain I was not in possession;"

Thirty second Interrogatory, What did you regard the factory as worth at that time without the property that belonged to your wife?

Answer "It is in my opinion worth more than I offered to give Mr Glenn in my letter;"

Thirty Third Interrogatory, What broke off the arrangement?

Answer, "Mr Glenn did not take my offer, this was all that broke it off;"

Thirty fourth Interrogatory, Did you regard your self responsible for the taxes and ground rents of the factory!

Answer, "I did not;"

Thirty fifth Interrogatory, Who paid the same and have ever since done it?

Answer, "Mr Glenn;"

Thirty sixth Interrogatory, The Respondents have filed as an exhibit in this case, a record of a suit in the County Court of the sixth Judicial district of the State of Maryland, commenced in the year 1839, against you by John Glenn, what have you to say of the suit?

Answer, "I have no recollection whatever of it, Mr Glenn never demanded any thing from me in regard to that property from the time it was given up;"

No further time being desired we then at the request of the Solicitors of the respective parties closed the said commission and now return the same closed under our hands and seals this 12th day of November 1866, at the City of Baltimore State of Maryland.
