April Term 1869

Exhibit No. 5

The following lines are left for directing the said Martin Diehl Jacob Sayler senior Thomas Ogle and Abraham Wolf or either of them in disposing of the property left to them by my will after the termination of Lydia's widowhood it is understood by said Will that all the property in her possession at the termination of her widowhood should her widowhood terminate in death is left to the said Diehl Sayler Ogle and Wolf which I wish them or either of them to divide in the follow manner one fourth of said property to be equally divided between my brothers and sister's children and their surviving heirs and one fourth between Lydia's brother's and sister's children and their surviving heirs and the remaining two fourths to be by them or either of them to be appropriated to and for the use of the poor as they or either of them with the consultation of our society may or shall think best consistant with the principals of the gospel having first in consideration our needy brethen of the house hold of faith but should her widowhood terminate in marriage as observed in said Will then the said Diehl Sayler Ogle & Wolf have but three fourths of said property to dispose of in the following manner One fourth to be divided between my brothers & sister's children and their surviving heirs as aforesaid and the remaining two fourths be disposed among the poor as afore stated and the one fourth Lydia is to possess wholly as stated in the will.

N B I wish the said Diehl Sayler Ogle and Wolf or either of them to pay themselves sufficiently for their loss time trouble and labour.

By the wish and request of your unworthy brother in Christ. Jonathan Plaine

April Term 1869

It is also my desire and wish that the above named persons or person shall not hurry the selling of the estate at the termination of Lydia's widowhood to the disadvantage of any individual but endeavour to arrange things to the best advantage and especially for those who are or may be immediately and particularly interested Which is thus endorsed on the back This paper with the contents is not to go to Court but to be kept a home in the hands of the Executrix or Diehl Sayler Ogle or Wolf
