October Term 1869

it is impossible for the parties interested therein to unite in any system of management of said premises, or in any measures for the partition or sale thereof, without the aid of this Court. To the end, therefore, that the Defendants hereinafter named, may answer the several matters and things hereinbefore charged, and especially that the said Ann Kirby Barnum, Zenas Barnum, and Andrew McLaughlin, may, on their several and respective corporal oaths, answer fully and particularly as to all and singular the matters in reference to which it is within charged, that discovery is necessary for the relief of your Orators, and that an account may be taken of the premises aforesaid, and of the rents and profits accrued since the death of the said Augustus Barnum, deceased, and that payment over to your Orators of their shares or proportions of said rents and profits may be decreed or enforced, and that said premises may be decreed to be sold under direction of this Court, and a due share of the proceeds thereof awarded to your Orators, and that your Orators may have such other and further relief in the premises as their case may require. May it please your Honor to grant unto your Orators the writ of Subpoena to the said Zenas Barnum, Andrew McLaughlin, David McLaughlin, William McLaughlin, August McLaughlin, Ephraim Kirby McLaughlin and Richard Barnum, all of the City of Baltimore, to be and appear in this Court to answer the premises and abide by such decree as may be passed therein, and also an order of publication against the said George Steward and Eliza his wife, and also against the said Ann Kirby Barnum, who resides in the State of Minnesota giving them notice of the object and substance of this Bill, and warning them to appear in this Court by some certain day to answer the premises and show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

And as, &c. Th. S. Alexander, for Compts.

Whereupon issued Subpoena and Order of Publication as prayed, in form following, to wit:

The State of Maryland, To Zenas Barnum, Andrew McLaughlin, David McLaughlin, William McLaughlin, Augustus McLaughlin, Ephraim (Seal) Kirby McLaughlin and Richard Barnum, of Baltimore City, greeting: We command and enjoin you, that all excuses set aside, you be in your person before the Judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore, at the Court house in said City, on the second Monday of March instant, to answer the complaint of David Barnum and Augustus Kirby Barnum, infants, by Girart Hewitt their next friend, against you and others in said Court exhibited.

Hereof fail not, as you will answer the contrary at your peril. Witness the Honorable William George Krebs, Judge of our said Court, the 14th day of January 1861, Issued the 8th day of March, Anno Domini 1861. Robt S. Keer, Clerk.
