rid of vermin at their places of business, would seem to be anxious to have their private dwellings also freed from intruders. They have, therefore, petitioned the Common Council to employ Mr. Costar to clear the entire city of rats, and he expresses his willingness to make a contract to do so, and asks for no pay until the work is performed to the entire satisfaction of the authorities and the citizens at large.

Yours truly, YORK.

UNFORTUNATE RENCOUNTER.—We are pained to learn by our express from Sharpsburg that a difficulty occurred at that poll between Geo. W. Van Lear and John H. Schnebly, which proved serious and may result fatally. The parties were old familiar friends and upon meeting, Mr. Van Lear, in a sportive way, snatched Mr. Schnebly's ticket from him, whereupon Mr. S. struck Mr. Van Lear a severe blow with the loaded end of a wagon whip, when Van Lear immediately apologized and said he meant no harm, but this did not satisfy Schnebly, and he again struck him several blows, whereupon Van Lear drew a knife and inflicted two or three serious and dangerous wounds in his breast and abdomen, from which it is feared he will not recover. Mr. Van Lear was immediately arrested and committed, bail being refused in consequence of the dangerous nature of the wounds.—Boonsboro' Old Fellow.

George W. Van Lear, charged with stabbing John H. Snavely, in Sharpsburg, Md., was admitted to bail, in the sum of $2,000, on Thursday week, by Judge Perry, to appear for examination at Hagerstown on Saturday. Mr. Snavely is not expected to recover.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 9.

Kossuth in the West.—Kossuth left Columbus this morning at 5 o'clock, accompanied by the Legislative Joint Committee, together with Gov. Wood and Lt. Gov. Medill. At Xenia, Springfield, Dayton and Hamilton, he was most enthusiastically received, but was unable from loss of voice to speak much.

About one thousand dollars were contributed along the route, and at Hamilton, the people, by resolution, tendered five hundred muskets, in possession of the county.

About 6 o'clock this evening, the train which conveyed the distinguished Magyar, entered the western metropolis, amid the roar of artillery.

A procession, composed of all the military and fire companies in the city, with other societies, was formed at the depot, and conducted Kossuth through the principal streets to the Burnet House, where a suite of rooms had been provided for the illustrious guest. Kossuth appeared on the balcony amid enthusiastic cheers, but owing to the delicate state of his health, was unable to speak. Mayor Taylor, on his behalf, then appeared and stated that Kossuth would endeavor to address the people on to morrow

During the whole afternoon, the city was in a state of excitement never before equaled.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 5.

Williams, the negro charged with carrying the intelligence of the approach of the officers to Christiana, Pa., which information led to the murder of Mr. Gorsuch, this morning rendered a verdict of acquittal. He was forthwith discharged from custody.

GREAT LOSS OF SPECIE.—On Saturday last a keg, containing about five thousand Mexican dollars, bursted while being hoisted on board the Havre packet ship St. Nicholas, at New York, and the contents fell into the dock. Three thousand four hundred of it was recovered.

Pupils will be expected to furnish their own Beds and Bedding, Towels, Table-Napkins, Silver Fork and two Spoons, or be subject to an additional charge.

Board in Vacation to accompany Mr. and Mrs. Pattison to their Home in Baltimore County, $3 00 per week.

The plan of instruction to be adopted is thorough and systematic, designed to embrace all the departments of a polite and finished education. The principals will associate with themselves, as far as Assistants may be required, resident Female Teachers of established reputation, holding themselves responsible to their Patrons for the faithful improvement of the Pupils, in all the branches to which their attention may be directed, and will make it their duty to advise the Parents or Guardians monthly of the progress or deficiency of their respective pupils.

The daily number of their studies is not to exceed from three to five.

It will be the aim of the Principals so to conduct the education of young ladies, as will best prepare them for the scenes and duties of practical life. They will seek to develope and strengthen the intellectual powers—train the mind to habits of careful study and thorough investigation—to inspire just principles of taste in Literature, with a thirst for knowledge and sound learning; that thus their pupils may learn to think and reflect, and be prepared to act, as they must do, sooner or later, for themselves. The culture of the heart, the proper regulation of the moral feelings, and the due observance of religious duties, will be diligently urged as the appropriate ends and objects of life.

The manners of ladies, which when duly refined, constitute an ornament and charm of the female sex, will be constantly and carefully cultivated. A well trained mind—a cheerful temper—a kind heart, with the adorning of a modest graceful deportment, presents that model of character to which each of their pupils will be urged to aspire. Attendance on Public Worship will be insisted upon, at those Churches directed by the Parents or Guardians, accompanied by one of the Principals or Teachers, or in the absence of such directions, in company with the family to the Episcopal Church of St. Michael's.

The exercises of the day will be opened and closed with devotional services.

The discipline of the Institute will be strictly parental.

At the solicitation of many friends, and from years of successful experience in the education of young ladies, the Principals feel a confidence in commending their labors to the regard and patronage of an intelligent community, and particularly to those Parents who, in selecting an Institution for the education of their daughters, have respect to their progressive improvement; no pains will be spared to render the residence of their pupils while with them, both comfortable and happy; the advantages of select female society twice a month will be enjoyed under the observance of the Principals and Teachers.

Communications may be addressed (prepaid,) to Mr. or Mrs. J. F. Pattison, St. Michaels, Md.
