this will, that they heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament, that at the time of his so doing, he was to the best of their apprehension of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and that they subscribed their names as witnesses to this will in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other. Sworn to in open Court.

Test:- D. M. Perine, Register of Wills for Baltimore County.

I, David Barnum, do make and declare the following as a Codicil to my above written last will and testament:

First. I do hereby devise to my beloved wife, Ann Kirby Barnum, the use and enjoyment, for the personal accomodation of herself and a servant, during my said wife's life, of any two adjoining rooms in the hotel part of my hotel buildings, and all rentings of the said hotel - authorized by my will are to be subject to the - reservation under this devise in favor of my wife, but it is to be understood that she is to have the benefit of the rooms aforesaid, and of this - devise only for her own occupation thereof actually, and not with any power of transferring the same, nor while she shall dwell in any other house.

Second.- It is further my will, and I direct that the board of my said wife (and her lodging if she shall not dwell in the hotel,) shall be paid by my Trustees in the first instance out of the rents of the hotel part of my hotel buildings, for and during the life of my wife.

Third.- In the above first devised, I include all necessary furniture for lodging and for a parlour, which I appropriate to her for her life accordingly, and as attached to the rooms she shall occupy. In testimony whereof, I hereto set my hand and seal this second day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and forty three.

David Barnum (Seal)

Signed Sealed published and declared by David Barnum, as and for a codicil to his last will and testament, in the presence of us, and we in presence of each other, who at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto sign our names to attest said signing, sealing and publishing and declaring.

Charles F. Mayer.
James H. Stimpson,
Theodore Glocker.

Baltimore County, Ss: On the 13th day of May 1844, came Charles F. Mayer, James H. Stimpson and Theodore Glocker, the three subscribing witnesses to the aforegoing codicil to the last will and testament of David Barnum, late of said County deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that they did see the testator sign and seal this codicil, that they heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be a codicil to his last will and testament, that at the time of his so doing, he was to the best of their apprehension of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and that they subscribed their names as witnesses to this codicil in his presence at his request and in the presence of each other.
