October Term 1869.

To the Honorable William George Krebs,
Judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City:
The Complainants by their next friend respectively show, that Frances McLaughlin, deceased, who is named in the original Bill in this cause, left at the time of her deceased one other child - besides those named in said Bill - that is to say: a daughter, Ann, who is the wife of Zenas - Barnum, one of the Defendants to said Bill; and they are advised that the said Ann is a necessary party to this suit. And they further show that Eliza Stanard in said Bill named, had three children now living, that is to say, Frances, wife of Jedediah Waterman, and Caroline, wife of Frederick W. Gilton, and George Stanard, all of whom are of full age and reside out of the State of Maryland, and that they are also - proper parties to said Bill. They therefore pray leave to file an amended Bill making the said persons parties to this suit, and as, &c.

Th. S. Alexander, for Compl'ts

Which being read and heard the Court here passed the following Order, to wit:

Circuit Court for Baltimore City, 24th October 1861. Ordered, that the complainants have - leave to file an amended Bill as prayed.

Wm Geo. Krebs.

And thereupon the said Complainants, by - their Solicitor aforesaid, filed in said Cause the following amended Bill of Complaint, to wit:

To the Honorable William George Krebs
Judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City

October Term 1869.

The amended Bill of Complaint of David Barnum and Augustus K. Barnum, infants, by Grant Hewitt their next friend, respectfully - shows: That heretofore they filed their Bill of Complaint in this Court, against certain - Andrew McLaughlin, Zenas Barnum and others, praying that the trusts created by the will of David Barnum, deceased, in said Bill named, may be carried into execution, and for other relief, as by said Bill appears, to which certain of the Defendants thereto have filed their answers, and other proceedings have been had, as by said Bill, Answers and so forth, now in this Court, will appear,

And your Orators charge that in and by said Bill it is alleged, that Frances McLaughlin, deceased, who was the wife of the Defendant Andrew of the said David Barnum deceased, left certain children McLaughlin and one of the children, who are named and described in said Bill, and as - such are entitled to certain benefits under the last will of the said David Barnum, deceased,

And your Orators now charge by way of amendment, that the said Frances McLaughlin left one other child, named Ann, who is the wife of the Defendant Zenas Barnum, and who - resides with her said husband, resides in the City of Baltimore - and that she is entitled to share in the distribution of the estate of the said David Barnum, deceased, and is - therefore a proper and necessary party Defendant to this suit.

And they further charge that the Defendant Eliza Stanard, who is named in said Bill as
