October Term 1869

in Court here the said Sedediah Waterman, Frances Waterman and George Stannard, Junior, by Edward Otis Hinkley and John T. Morris, Esquires, their Solicitors, and filed in said cause their joint answer to the said Bill of Complaint in form following, to wit;

David Barnum & Augustus Kirby Barnum, Infants, by Gerrard Hewitt, their next friend, vs Zenas Barnum & others.	In Circuit Court for Baltimore City.

To the Honorable William George Krebs, Judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City:

The joint answer of Sedediah Waterman and Frances Waterman, (formerly Frances Stannard,) and George Stannard, junior, to the Bill of Complaint of David Barnum and Augustus Kirby Barnum, infants, against them and others exhibited in this Court.

(1.) These Respondents admit all the facts charged in said Bill as against them, except as hereinafter mentioned, and say that they are the children of said Eliza Stannard, and are all above the age of twenty-one years.

(2.) They admit that it is right and equitable that an account should be taken of the trust estate, and of the rents and management of said property mentioned in said Bill of Complaint.

(3.) They are advised and believe and so claim, that the construction claimed by said Complainants, of the will of said David Barnum, deceased, as to the nature and extent of the title and interests of these Respondents, is the true construction thereof, namely, that said children of said David Barnum, deceased, acquired no greater or other interest or estate in his property than for their respective lives, with remainder to their children in fee, and so that by the death of the said Ephraim Kirby Barnum, all his estate determined; and these Respondents therefore claim to be entitled to one undivided fifth part, and also to one undivided fourth part of another fifth, that is to say, to one fourth part in all of said property in remainder, after the decease of their mother, Eliza Stannard, and they submit to such decision in the premises as this honorable Court may think just and equitable upon a proper construction of said will of said David Barnum, deceased.

October Term 1869.

Hinkley & Morris, Sol's for Respondents.

And on the same nineteenth day of November, the said George Stannard and Eliza his wife, by their Solicitors aforesaid, filed in said cause their joint answer to the said Bill of Complaint in form following, to wit;

David Barnum and Augustus Kirby Barnum, Infants, by Gerrard Hewitt, their next friend, vs Zenas Barnum & others.	In Circuit Court for Baltimore City.

To the Honorable William George Krebs, Judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore.