FOUND DEAD.—The Washington Telegraph says on Saturday evening a colored man was found dead near the iron bridge, in Georgetown, having died from the small pox and exposure. The poor fellow had crawled to the edge of the creek to quench his thirst, and so died. It is said that he had been fishing at some landing on the Potomac, where he had taken the disease, and, being driven hence, made his way to town.

EXPEDITION TO JAPAN.—The chief objects of the expedition to Japan are to secure protection for the lives and property of American citizens shipwrecked on the Japanese coast, and, if possible, to effect an arrangement by which American steamers may be supplied with coal. A note from the Dutch Minister manifests a disposition on the part of the Japanese Government to make some concession to the necessities of commerce.

WASHINGTON, April 26.

Money advanced for the Repair of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.—The Banks of the cities of Alexandria and Washington, and the Corporation of Georgetown, have to-day agreed to advance the money necessary for the repairs of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. The works are to be commenced immediately, and it is hoped that in from ten to twelve weeks the Canal will again be in a boating condition. The damage is estimated at $80,000

CEMENT FOR GRAFTING.—The grafting season being at hand, it may be of advantage to some of our readers, to state, that we have found the very best grafting wax made from the following ingredients: One part tallow, two of beeswax and three of rosin—melt and mix the whole—turn it into cold water, and work it as shoemaker's wax. These make a compound that will not melt in a hot summer's sun, nor crack in the severest cold.

PRICES CURRENT.

DIED,

On Monday night last, at the residence of his son in law, John Baggs, in Chapel District, THOMAS BUCHENAL, Esq., an old and esteemed citizen of this county.

On the 25th inst., at the residence of his father, James M. Hopkins, Esq., in the Bayside District of this county, JOSEPH HOPKINS, aged 25 years.

Very suddenly, on Thursday morning, KATE, infant daughter of N. P. and Mary E. Stichbury, aged 2 months.

In Baltimore, on the 25th instant, MARY HUGHLETT, infant and only child of Tamsey A. Reese, relict of the late Rev. L. R. Reese.

In Baltimore, on the 19th inst., ROBERT, son of Richard and Caroline Plummer, in the 22d year of his age, formerly of Easton.

In Philadelphia, on the 15th inst., of pulmonary disease, SUSAN ELLEN, wife of W. H. Robinson, and eldest daughter of the late Dr. John Stevens, of Easton, Md.

At Wye Mills, on Saturday, the 24th ult., Dr. SYDENHAM T. RUSSUM, in the 64th year of his age.

The deceased was one of the latest survivors of that old school of Physicians from which in the lapse of a few years, one and another have glided silently away. With the polish of the gentleman he combined attainments in science of no ordinary extent. A long term of practice had attached to him the confidence and endearment of many warm friends and admirers who will long indulge with profound sensibility, the memory of his rare virtues. Naturally buoyant and happy he bore his youthful feelings to the very confines of the grave. In society he was the life of every coterie, fascinating all by the anecdotical style of his conversation—while in the room of affliction he was at once dignified in his demeanour, prompt and indefatigable in the exercise of his skill.

Dr. Russum was born in the vicinity of New Market, Dorchester county, in this State—pursued his studies in the office of the late Dr. Tristram Thomas—and was graduated in due time, at the Venerable University of Pennsylvania. For many years he acted as one of the Regents of the University of Maryland. He was also the first President of the Talbot County Medical Society; and at the time of his death a member of the Board of Medical Examiners for the Eastern Shore of Maryland. At the period of his decease, and for many years prior, Doctor Russum resided at Wye Mills, Talbot County, where he had acquired a large practice, and secured the confidence and esteem of the entire community. He was followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends and neighbors who manifested in their serious demeanour their deep sense of the loss they had sustained in his death. C. C. C.
