To the Honorable William Alexander,
Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City:
The bill of revivor and supplement of David Barnum and Augustus K. Barnum, infants, under the age of twenty-one years, by Girard Hewitt, their next friend, humbly shows:
That heretofore these Complainants, being at the time infants under the age of twenty-one years, by the said Hewitt, as their next friend, filed their bill of Complaint in this Court against certain Zenas Barnum, Andrew McLaughlin, David McLaughlin, Augustus McLaughlin, Ephraim Kirby McLaughlin, William McLaughlin, Richard Barnum, George Steward and Eliza his wife, and Ann

October Term 1869.

Kirby Barnum, and by amendment thereof, against Sededick Waterman and Frances his wife, Frederick W. Tilton and Caroline his wife, and George Steward, Junior, claiming and insisting therein amongst other things, that under the devises and dispositions thereof made by the last will and testament of David Barnum, late of Baltimore City, deceased, a copy whereof was exhibited and filed with their aforesaid original bill, they had become entitled to undivided shares or parts of certain lots of ground in the City of Baltimore, and the erections thereon, which are mentioned and described in said last will and testament, as the City Hotel buildings and grounds, and of certain furniture and other chattels attached thereto and used therewith, that is to say: To one undivided fifth share or part of said buildings, grounds, furniture and other chattels, from the day of the death of Dr. Augustus Barnum, the father of your said Complainants, who died in or about the month of October, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three and to one undivided fourth part of one other undivided fifth part or share of said premises from the day of the death of Ephraim Kirby Barnum, named in said bill, who was a son of the said testator, and who had departed this life without issue, sometime in the year eighteen hundred and forty-seven, and to shares or proportions of the rents, issues and profits resulting from the use and employment
