The Exhibit A. referred to in the aforegoing bill of complaint, is as follows, to wit:

Exhibit A."

Andrew McSaughlin's Last Will and Testament.

As a memorandum of terms, I propose for my will, when I can formally make one, on my — recovery from my present sickness, I state for the disposition of my estate the following provisions, declaring, however, hereby, that this — writing shall, in any event, be accepted and have effect as my last will and testament, until I make another, as just suggested, to wit:

I Andrew McSaughlin, of Baltimore City, hereby declare as follows:

First. I devise and bequeath to Zenas Barnum of said City, all my estate of every kind in trust, to carry out the dispositions hereof, and I appoint him executor of my will.

Second. I bequeath to my wife, Elizabeth, seven thousand five hundred dollars, to be — paid to her out of the first accruing funds of
