October Term 1869

County greeting: We command and enjoin (Seals Place) you, that all excuses set aside, you be in your person before the Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore city, at the Court House in said city, on the second Monday of May next, to answer the complaint of David Barnum and others, against you in said Court exhibited. Hereof fail not, as you will answer the contrary at your peril.

Witness the Honorable William Alexander, Judge of our said Court the 11th day of March 1867.

Issued the 8th day of May, Anno Domini 1867.

Saml. M. Evans, Clerk

Summons omnes, except Frank Barnum not found.

John H. Harney, Sheriff.

And afterwards to wit, on the twenty-eighth day of May, in the year aforesaid, the following Exhibit "B," was filed in said cause, to wit:

"Exhibit B."

Copy

Zenas Barnum's Last Will and Testament:

I, Zenas Barnum of Baltimore county, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament in manner following, that is to say:

Item. I give, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife, Annie Barnum, all the rights, titles, interest and estate bequeathed and devised to me by the will of her father, Andrew McLaughlin, late of Baltimore City, deceased, to which I am now or might hereafter be entitled under the provisions of said will.

October Term 1869.

Item. I give, bequeath and devise to my said wife during her natural life, my farm called "Glum Cain," situate in Baltimore county, and recently purchased by me from George B. Milligan and wife, together with all the stock crops, farming utensils, furniture and all other the personal property upon the same of every kind and description.

Item. I give, bequeath and devise to my said wife during her natural life, my house and lot on Mount Vernon Place, at the southeast corner or intersection of Monument and Cathedral streets in the City of Baltimore, with all the buildings and improvements of said lot, together with the furniture, plate library, wines, liquors and all other the personal property in said dwelling. I also give her my carriage, horses and harness.

Item. It is my will that my said wife shall, however, have full power and authority at any time to sell and convey either or both of the said properties so devised to her for life, as also the whole or any part of the personal property in and upon the same, and the proceeds of such sale or sales to invest in conjunction with her co-trustee as is hereinafter mentioned, for her sole and separate use, during her life, her own receipt to be sufficient to collect and receive the interest and income from such investment or invest-