ments, and in making said sale or sales the purchaser or purchasers shall in no wise be bound to see to the application of such proceeds.

Item. I give and bequeath to my said wife, during her life, the sum of six thousand dollars per annum, and to that end I do hereby direct and require my executors (to be hereinafter named) to set apart so much of my estate as will yield the said sum of six thousand dollars annually, which she is to receive in equal quarterly payments accounting from the time of my death; and I do further direct, that my said wife shall from time to time receive and collect said interest and income, and her receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son, Frank Barnum, the sum of ten thousand dollars, which together with the interest on said amount, shall be paid to him when he arrives at the age of twenty-one years.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son, Zenas Barnum, the sum of five thousand dollars, which, together with the interest on said amount shall be paid to him when he arrives at the age of twenty one years.

Item. I give and bequeath to my Sister, Harriet Dorsey, wife of Dan. Dorsey, the sum of five thousand dollars, to be paid to her by my executors for her sole and separate use, and in no wise to be liable for the debts, contracts or engagements of her present or any future husband.

Item. I give, bequeath and devise all the rest, residue and remainder of my property and estate of what kind soever, the same may consist, and wheresoever the same be situate, (not herein before specially devised) with the increase to my children, Frank Barnum, Zenas Barnum, Esther C. Barnum, Annie Barnum and Maggie B. Barnum, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike, which they shall receive from my Trustee (hereinafter mentioned) when they shall respectively arrive of age, that is to say, the boys at twenty one years, and the girls at eighteen years of age. But should any other child or children be born to me, it is my will that they shall participate equally with those above mentioned, and subject to the same conditions as to the periods above named.

Item. After the death of my said wife, I will and direct that all the property devised to her for life, shall be equally divided amongst my children, the child or children of any deceased child to take such portion as the parent if living would have been entitled to.

Item. It is my will, and I do hereby direct, that after the payment of the expenses incident to the maintenance, support and education of my children, if any surplus should remain, that the same shall be invested from time to time by my wife, Annie Barnum and my friends Frank H. Bennett and Samuel H. Tagart, in such securities, as they may deem best for the interest of my children, in trust for all my children, which shall be paid
