more receivers ought to be appointed, and that all the proceeds ought to be appointed among this Defendant and other parties interested in said property, according to their respective interests therein.

E. Beatty Goaff,
Sol. for John Barnum.

And on the same day and year aforesaid, Exhibit J. R. B. referred to in the foregoing answer, was filed in said cause, to wit:

Copy — Last Will and Testament of Richard Barnum:

In the name of God, Amen: I Richard Barnum, of Baltimore county, in the State of Maryland, being sick and weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, considering the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle all my worldly affairs, and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence, do make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner and form following:

First and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God, who gave the same, and my body to the earth to be decently interred at the discretion of my executor hereinafter named.

Item. I will, bequeath and devise unto my son John R. Barnum, after my debts and funeral expenses are paid, all my property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description whatsoever, and wheresoever the same may be situated, to him, his heirs and assigns — forever.

Item. It is my will and request that my said son, John R. Barnum, shall afford to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Ann Barnum, during her natural life, a good and comfortable maintenance and support, and if occasion demand it, to act as her guardian and trustee, and to see that she is well cared for and provided for in a genteel and substantial, although not in an extravagant, manner.

And lastly, I hereby nominate and appoint my son, John R. Barnum, to be the sole executor of this my last will and testament, revoking and annulling all others heretofore made by me, and hereby declaring and publishing this to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof, I, the said Richard Barnum, have hereunto set my hand and seal on this fourteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Richard Barnum. (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Richard Barnum, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto signed our names as witnesses thereof.

Thomas O'Neil,
D. B. McLaughlin, M.D.
