VALUABLE FARM

Situated in the Bayside Neck of Talbot County, for Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale that valuable Farm in the Bayside Neck, situated on the Eastern Bay about seven miles from St. Michaels, on the road leading to Haddaway's Ferry, known as the farm of the late Mrs. C. L. Edmondson, and on which Charles McDaniel at present resides.

This Farm contains about THREE HUNDRED ACRES, and is divided into two equal portions by the public road. It will be sold in two divisions. The one of which, situated on the Eastern Bay, contains the arable land, and on it are the Buildings. EDUCATION. ACADEMY FOR YOUNG LADIES,

No. 97, NORTH CHARLES STREET, (Two doors South of Mulberry st.,) BALTIMORE.

Mr. R. E. DANIEL, F. E. I. S. and Mrs. DANIEL, Late of Madras, India.—Principals.

THIS Institution is designed to afford a liberal and comprehensive course of instruction to Young Ladies, by combining the ordinary and ornamental branches of an English Education, with the Modern Languages, Ancient Classics, and the Mathematical and Physical Sciences.

The locality is one of the most fashionable in Baltimore, and is recommended by its elevation, healthfulness, and facility of access from all parts of the City.

To the advantages of a regular course of training for the profession, Mr. D. adds eighteen years experience in some of the first establishments in Scotland, and in India; and has brought with him from the highest authorites in these countries, and from the Scottish Educational Institute, of which he is a Graduate and Corresponding Member, numerous testimonials of his qualifications and fitness for the work. From the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Madras; Rev. J. B. Tucker, Secretary C. M. S. Madras; Rev. A. R. Symonds, Wadham College, Oxford, Head Master, Bish. Corrie's Gram. School; Rev. M. Winslow and other Missionaries in South India; A. F. Bruce, Esq., Postmaster General, India; Capt. A. S. Grant, Assistant Adjutant General H. S. Force; Col. Alexander, Adjutant General and from other Officers in the Madras Army; Committee of Bishop Corrie's Grammar School, Madras; Ministers of St. Andrew's Church, Madras; Annual Reports to Government of the Committee of St. Andrew's School, Madras; J. Kerr, Esq., A. M. Principal, Hindoo College, Calcutta; Rev. Dr. Duncan, and other members of the Dumfries Presbytery; John MacMillan, Esq., A. M. High School, Edinburg; Rector and other Masters of the Dumfries Grammar School; Rev. R. Menzies, and other Members of the Annan Presbytery; Rector and Managers of the Annan Academy; J. Barker, Esq., late Agent Bank of Scotland, Dumfries; W. Fergusson, late Governor of Sierra Leone.

The domestic arrangements are wholly under the superintendence of Mrs. Daniel, who also takes part in the scholastic duties; her experience in the management of the young fully qualifying her for such an important charge.

Pupils are received from the age of nine years. The requisites for admission being, some fluency in reading, and an acquaintance with the first principles of Arithmetic, Geography, and Grammar.

In English, especial attention is given to elocution, and Composition, that every Pupil may be enabled to read and write her own language, with correctness, intelligence and ease. Auxiliary to this, and as a desirable attainment on the part of any who may have it in view to become Teachers, a Class will be formed at the commencement of every Session, for the study of Latin.

The study of French, which is an essential part of female education, has a prominent place in the course of instruction. Besides the translation of Standard Authors, History and other studies are pursued through the medium of this language; and in order to promote the improvement of the Pupils in French conversation, an accomplished Parisian Lady resides in the family.

Lectures are given on Chemistry, and other branches of Physical Science, illustrated by suitable apparatus—and a Library of well selected books of reference is open to the Senior Pupils.

The Principals spare neither trouble nor expense, in order to make the Institution worthy of public confidence; and, convinced that the cultivation of the intellectual powers alone, is not sufficient to qualify the Pupil for the proper discharge of the duties and responsibilities of woman's life, it is their care, whilst communicating knowledge in every department of useful and elegant learning, that the education imparted shall be essentially founded on, and pervaded by the principles of religion—that best and highest knowledge, without which else is vain.

TERMS.

For Boarders, including English Instruction in all its branches, Latin, Washing, Bed, Bedding, and Fuel, per half-yearly session; payable in advance. $130

Day Pupils, above 12 years of age, including English tuition in all its branches, and Latin, per quarter, 15

Notice to Tax-Payers of Talbot Co.

THE subscriber, Collector of County and State Taxes for 1852, takes this method to inform those indebted that he has contracted to collect the taxes for less than half the sum heretofore paid. This is a saving, and consequently an advantage to taxpayers, and for this benefit to them he expects a return in the speedy payment of all taxes due. The small compensation will not justify him in making numberless calls at private houses, and he confidently expects persons to search him up. He has and can have agreeably to his engagement with the County, no deputies; he therefore gives this full warning and caution. The law will necessarily be enforced against those who unreasonably delay the payment of their taxes.

He will be at St. Michaels on the 13th and 14th August, again on the 27th and 28th, and so continue, at two weeks intervals. He may be found at the store of Rd. H. Adams, from 7 o'clock A. M., to 7 o'clock P. M., when at St. Michaels, who is fully authorized to receive any payment during the absence of the undersigned.

He will be at Easton every Tuesday, and may be found at the office of Thos. J. Clark at the Court House.

He will be at his residence at the Trappe when not elsewhere engaged in collecting.

Those indebted for State Tax would do well to remember that a deduction of five per cent. will be made on all sums paid before the 1st of September, four per cent. on all sums paid before the 1st of October, and three per cent. on all sums paid before the 1st of November.
