filed in this cause.

And they further say, that after the death of the said Andrew McLaughlin, the said Zenas Barnum conducted, and carried on said Hotel as Trustee, and only as Trustee named and appointed by the will of the said Andrew McLaughlin for that purpose.

And these respondents further answering say, that after the death of Zenas Barnum, they were on the thirteenth day of April 1865, appointed by this Court Trustees in the place and stead of the said Zenas, to carry into effect the purposes of the said will of Andrew McLaughlin, and that from the date of their said appointment down to the 6th day of February 1866, they managed and conducted as Trustees as aforesaid, the said Hotel; that they reported to this Court full and perfect accounts of all monies received and expended by them as such Trustees, and that their said accounts were here audited, and the balance of monies in their hands distributed and paid over under the direction and order of this Court; all which will more fully appear by reference to the proceedings and accounts, "now of record in this Court," in the matter of the estate of Andrew McLaughlin, deceased," and which it is prayed may be taken as part of this answer.

And these respondents pray to be hence dismissed with their costs.
