I will ask: what is the situation of the agriculturalist? Where has the American farmer a market for his surplus produce? Except for cotton he has neither a foreign nor home market. Does not this clearly prove, when there is no market at home or abroad, that there is too much labor employed in agriculture?—Common sense at once points out the remedy. Take agriculture in the United States, six hundred thousand men, women and children, and you will at once give a market for more breadstuffs than all Europe now furnishes us. In short, sir, we have been too long subject to the policy of British merchants. It is time we should become a little more Americanized, and instead of feeding paupers and laborers of England, feed our own; or else, in a short time, continuing our present policy, we shall all be rendered paupers ourselves.

It is, therefore, my opinion that a careful and judicious tariff is much wanted to pay our national debt, and to afford us the means of that defence within ourselves, on which the safety of our country and liberty depends; and last, though not least, give a proper distribution to our labor, which must prove beneficial to the happiness, independence and wealth of the community.

I am, sir, most respectfully,
Your most ob't serv't,
ANDREW JACKSON.

Under the present ad valorem tariff, stupendous frauds are constantly being committed by means of false invoices. The Government is cheated out of its revenue, the honest importers are cheated out of their profits, and the artizans are cheated out of what little protection the tariff, on its face, allows. These things the Whigs wish to correct by the substitution of specific duties instead of ad valorem, by which means the revenue will be secured from fraud, the importers all pay the same duties, and protection is given when it is most required, that is, when British manufactures are at the lowest prices. We have not room to enter minutely into the discussion of this question, but we trust that by thus bringing the question to the notice of our readers, it will lead them to reflect upon it, and we feel confident that they will cast their votes in November next, against the representatives of the British interests, Pierce and King.

FIRST GUN FROM MISSISSIPPI.—A special election was held in Amite county, on the 20th ult., for a representative in the Legislature, in the place of the late lamented Judge Wall. The vote stood: for Van Swearingen (Whig) 369, for Robinson (Whig) 28; for Felder (dem.) 286.

Amite county gave last fall 40 majority for Davis (Dem) over Foote (Union) and 45 majority for A. G. Brown (Dem) for Congress.

ANOTHER.—The Chickasaw (Miss.) Banner has full returns of the special election lately held in that county for a Representative in the State Legislature to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Jas McCrory. The result is that John Ivy (Whig) is elected by a majority of forty-four votes. This county usually gives about two hundred and fifty democratic majority.

A private letter received by a gentleman in Baltimore, from an intelligent friend, dated at Dover, N. H., September 25th, says:—"I don't know how it is your way, but Scott stock is decidedly firmer hereabouts. The Locos had a grand 'pow-wow' at Augusta, Maine, the other day, and it proved a decided failure. At no time did the whole number of attendants get as high as six hundred. Mr. Soule, of Louisiana, J Van Buren, Senator Clemens, and other distinguished men of the party were speakers! The Locos feel very bad about it. The Whigs of Maine and New Hampshire had nothing like the enthusiasm in 1840 that they have now."

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 2

To the Editors of the North American—The Locos yesterday raised a British flag at a mass meeting, and under it denounced General Scott as a coward, thief and liar. What do you think of it, soldiers who fought under Scott? Workingmen, whom the Locos wish to compel to compete with British pauper labor?

FREE SOIL TICKET IN MARYLAND.—The Free Soilers in Maryland have nominated the following electoral ticket: For electors at large, J. E. Snodgrass, of Baltimore city, and Wm. Hughes, of Carroll county. For the Congressional districts—William Gunnison, David Gamble, Darius Thomas, Andrew Gardner, Lloyd N. Benson, and John C. Howard.

Who are they, and where do they live?

NEW CASTLE, Oct. 7.

Delaware Election—An election was held in Delaware on last Monday for Inspectors. The following is the result in the whole State.

New Castle, 6 whig majority; Kent, 179 do.; Sussex, 132 do. Whig majority in the State 317. The whig gain since last year is over 200 votes.

The Washington Republic announces that the Hon. James H. Johnson, a prominent Union Democrat, of Georgia, has declared for Scott and Graham.

Notice to Tax-Payers of Talbot Co.

THE subscriber, Collector of County and State Taxes for 1852, takes this method to inform those indebted that he has contracted to collect the taxes for less than half the sum heretofore paid. This is a saving, and consequently an advantage to taxpayers, and for this benefit to them he expects a return in the speedy payment of all taxes due. The small compensation will not justify him in making numberless calls at private houses, and he confidently expects persons to search him up. He has and can have agreeably to his engagement with the County, no deputies; he therefore gives this full warning and caution. The law will necessarily be enforced against those who unreasonably delay the payment of their taxes.

He will be at St. Michaels on the 13th and 14th August, again on the 27th and 28th, and so continue, at two weeks intervals. He may be found at the store of Rd. H. Adams, from 7 o'clock A. M., to 7 o'clock P. M., when at St. Michaels, who is fully authorized to receive any payment during the absence of the undersigned.

He will be at Easton every Tuesday, and may be found at the office of Thos. J. Clark at the Court House.

He will be at his residence at the Trappe when not elsewhere engaged in collecting.

Those indebted for State Tax would do well to remember that a deduction of five per cent. will be made on all sums paid before the 1st of September, four per cent. on all sums paid before the 1st of October, and three per cent. on all sums paid before the 1st of November.
