thereof as aforesaid, will justify the allegations of your petitioners, that said Anna is misapplying and misappropriating to her own use and others, the entire income and profits of said property, and is a wilful and deliberate mismanagement of said property, and renders the necessity for the appointment of a receiver imperative. And your petitioners therefore pray that an injunction may issue restraining and to restrain the said David C. Gordon and Anna Gordon, his wife, Trustees as aforesaid, from all further payments and distribution of all monies or funds in her hands arising from said property or proceeds thereof, and that a receiver or receivers may be appointed to take charge and management of said City Hotel as now constituted, or so much thereof as constituted said City Hotel, at the time of the death of David Barnum, the testator, and that a sale thereof may forthwith be made under the direction of this Court as prayed in said original and supplemental bills, and that said David C. Gordon and Anna Gordon, Trustee as aforesaid, may be required to bring into this Court all monies now in her hands and heretofore received, and which she may hereafter receive, to abide the event of this suit, and for such other and further relief as your petitioners may require. And as in duty, &c.

George H. Williams
Theles A. Smithsum
Solrs. for Petitioners.

State of Maryland.
City of Baltimore, to wit:

On this 21st day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, in open Court personally appeared Theles A. Smithsum, and made oath on the Holy Gospels of Almighty God, that the matters and facts set forth in the aforegoing petition are true as therein stated, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

James R. Brewer, Clk.

Whereupon the Court passed the following order:

Barnum, et al vs Barnum, Gordon, &c.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

March Term 1868.

The petition filed by the Complainants in this cause on the 21st day of March 1868, praying that an injunction may issue as prayed, and that a receiver may be appointed, also that a sale of the property in said petition mentioned may be forthwith made, and that the Defendants, David C. and Annie Gordon, may bring certain monies into this Court, having been submitted upon the motion for an injunction, and the said petition and the proceedings in the cause having been read and considered, it is thereupon this second day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, by this Court ordered, that the injunction prayed for in said petition be and the same is hereby refused.

Campbell W. Pinkney.

Thereupon, to wit: on the same day and year aforesaid, the following order to enter an appeal was here filed in form following, to wit:

Mr. Brewer, Clerk: Please enter an appeal from