HORRIBLE.—Benjamin Sadler, confined in the jail at Petersburg, Va., for kidnapping, made his escape last Sunday. Joel Sturdevant attempted to stop him, when Sadler drew a revolver and shot him dead. He also dangerously wounded a colored man in the chin.

Sadler had proceeded about three miles from the city when he was overtaken by Messrs. Ledbetter and Bottwell. When ordered to surrender, he turned and deliberately shot himself dead. The tragedy created the greatest excitement.

ALARMING SICKNESS.—The town agent of East Greenwich, R. I., has within the last four months sold in the required doses, three hogsheads of New England rum, fifteen casks of brandy, and other liquors in proportion, for the use of sick people.

A DOUBLE CROP.—Mr. Joseph Sinton, of Kent county, Md., after cutting his wheat in July last, planted the same lot with corn, from which he raised an average of 25 bushels to the acre.

Our attention was particularly called to a case of Medicines at the Fair of the Maryland Institute, viz: of STABLER'S ANODYNE CHERRY EXPECTORANT AND DIARRHŒA CORDIAL; they are most beautifully put up, and from what we have heard, they are as good as they are beautiful. Many of our physicians prescribe them with the best effect. To those suffering with Cold and its kindred diseases, we would recommend a trial of the Expectorant. [nov 27—1m

The Road to Happiness.

J. H. K. SHANNAHAN would respectfully say to all who are indebted to him, that in the course of human events it has become necessary for him in closing up his old business, to settle off a few old balances. This being the case, it makes it also necessary for his friends to do likewise unto him, then he can say a happy new year to you all and the "rest of mankind"—that is, if you pay him by New Years, or a few days after—if not, it will be ill with me.
