October Term 1869.

Samuel Moale (Seal)
Ann G. Moale (Seal)

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of "the words "now Fayette" in the second page of this Deed, being first interlined.

James B. Latimer,
Thomas B. Pottenger.

Baltimore City, to wit: Be it remembered, that on this eighteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, before us, the subscribers, two Justices of the Peace for the said city, personally appeared Samuel Moale and Ann G. Moale, his wife, parties grantors in the annexed or aforegoing deed or instrument of writing mentioned and acknowledged the same to be their act and deed. And the said Ann, wife of the said Samuel Moale, did sign and seal the said deed or instrument of writing before us, out of the presence and hearing of her husband, and being by us privately examined out of the presence and hearing of her husband, "Whether she doth execute and acknowledge the same voluntarily and freely, and without being induced to do so by fear or threats of ill usage by her husband, or by fear of his displeasure;" Declared and acknowledges that she doth execute and acknowledge the same voluntarily and freely, and without being induced to do so, by fear or threats of, or ill usage by her said husband or by fear of his displeasure. And we do further more certify, that of our own knowledge the said Samuel Moale and Ann G. Moale, who
