possession Complainant has been in possession of it ever since.
Sixth Interrogatory There was a flour Mill on the premises at the time the said Isaac Paul relinquished possession. The Mill was not in very good order.
There was a common old fashioned one story dwelling house on the place. & a stone house & coopers shop. I cant express an Opinion as to the value of these buildings. Other improvements have been erected on said premises since that time. The Old Mill & dwelling have been burned down since my brother Complainant purchased the place. He rebuilt the Mill one story higher & put an addition to the end of it. He also erected a stone picking house & built on the place where the old dwelling stood, a large stone house suitable for four families. He filled the Mill with Machinery for the purpose of manufacturing cotton yarn. He also built on the other side of the stream on the same property two dwellings a stone house & barn. These are the principal improvements. The Machinery cost about $8.000 I think the buildings cost about $4.000. These improvements were all made by Complainant at different times. The principal part of them were made before the year 1835

Eleventh Interrogatory. Said Isaac Paul now deceased delivered some wheat & flour barrels to my father at the Mills & had them credited upon the judgments. Samuel Brown also made a small payment to me on amount of these judgments. These are the only payments I know of I worked in the Mill at the time the wheat & flour barrels were delivered & had charge of the books & knew that these payments were made.
Whereupon the Counsel for the Defendant exhibited his cross interrogatories to be put to said witness, which are herewith returned & the said witness being examined thereon deposeth & saith as follows to the First Cross Interrogatory - I know the value of the improvements referred to, because I was on the ground backwards & forwards all the time they were being made. I saw most of the bills and did all the hauling of the stone & lumber.

Second Cross Interrogatory I cannot state the number of flour barrels nor the amount of wheat delivered at my fathers Mill & credited upon the judgments. I cannot recollect. The Mills which I have call the my fathers Mill was not the Guilford Mills, but a different establishment.

Third Interrogatory. I cannot say when Isaac Paul died. I cannot say where he resided at the time of his death. I am under the impression that he resided in Baltimore at that time. I did not see him for several years before his death. I do not know where said Paul resided in 1818. He did not reside at Guilford Mills 1819. I have no distinct recollection of dates but I remember that after said Paul left Guilford Mills he resided for a time at Guilford farm, thence he removed to Henry Howards place of Ephraim, where he resided I believe until he removed to Baltimore. I recollect that while said Paul resided in Howards place said Paul's two sons Joseph who is now dead & Isaac one of the Defendants were very ill, and I assisted in nursing them. I cannot recollect the date of this George Stockett assisted me in nursing them.
