against him, in said Circuit Court for Montgomery County, on their said claim, for the sum of seventeen hundred and seventy five dollars & fourteen cents, with interest thereon from the fifteenth day of February in the year 1867, and seven dollars & twenty cents costs, all of which well more fully and at large appear by reference to an official Copy of said judgment herewith filed as a part hereof marked Exhibit No 5.

Your orators further charge that both of said judgments still remain due and owing, and unpaid to your complainants, and that the said William T. Dove has no other property out of which the same can be made, and no other means of satisfying his indebtedness to your orators and his other creditors except the real estate which he has, so, falsely and fraudulently, as aforesaid, procured to be conveyed to his said wife Ann W. Dove, and had not, at the time he procured said conveyances to be made Your orators further charge that the said Ann W. Dove was a poor girl when the said William T. Dove married her, and never afterwards acquired any property or money in her own right, wherewith to purchase said real estate, and had not, therefore, the ability to make said purchases.

To the end, therefore, that the said William T. Dove & Ann W. Dove, his wife may answer the several matters and things hereinbefore stated, as fully and particularly as if they were herein again repeated, and they were thereunto specially interrogated, and that the said deeds of conveyance from Henry Haight & wife, David Jackson & wife, and John H. Knock & wife, to the said Ann W. Dove, may be annulled, vacated, and set aside by your Honorable Court, as having been procured to be conveyed to her, by the said William T. Dove, in fraud of the rights of your orators and his other creditors, and that said real estate in said deeds mentioned and described, or so much thereof as may be necessary, may be decreed to be sold, as the property of the said William T. Dove, for the purpose of paying the claims of your orators and of such other creditors of the said William T. Dove, as will come in and contribute to the expense of this suit, and for such further or other relief as their case may require.

May it please the Court to grant unto your orators the writ of subpoena against the said William T. Dove, and Ann W. Dove his wife, commanding them to appear in this Court, at some certain day, to be therein named, to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein.

And as in duty bound &c. W. W. Talbott Solr. for Complnts
