4th Do you Know what Mr Dove's business standing was at the time he quit business in Washington City? If yea, please state what it was, and whether he was regarded as solvent, or otherwise.
5th Could Mr Dove, at the time he quit business in Washington City, have obtained credit with other merchants on his individual responsibility?
6th Did Mr Dove leave any property, notes, accounts, or other evidences of debt or effects of any kind in Washington City, when he quit business & left there, to be collected and applied to the payment of his debts? if yea, please state their aggregate amount, & whether they were not reasonably sufficient to discharge the same? state particularly all that you know with reference to Mr Dove's liabilities, and the provision, if any, made by him, with reference to the payment thereof.
7th Have you any knowledge of the claim of Warner, Mickey & Merrill against the said William T. Dove the particular items of charge, and how the same originated? Had you any instructions with reference to the payment thereof? if yea, please state what those instructions were, and why said claim was not paid?
8th Have you any knowledge of the respective times when the lands mentioned in the bill were purchased? if yea, please state what evidences of debt due to the said William T. Dove, were then in your hands. Were they sufficient to discharge the indebtedness of the said William T. Dove, and were any funds arising from the same applied to the purchase of said lands? What instructions, if any, were given to you, as to the application of the same, when they should be collected?

George Peter & Thos Anderson
Solrs for defendants.

Additional Interrogatories to complainants witnesses,
1st What is your age, occupation & place of residence?
2d State whether you sold any land situated in Montgomery County in the State of Maryland, during the years 1862 1863, or 1864, to any one, and if so, to whom, who negotiated the contract of the purchase thereof, and who paid the purchase money? state particularly all you know in regard to the matter?

Hattersley W. Talbott.
Solr for Complnts

Cross Interrogatories propounded to David Jackson, Knock, on the part of the defendants.
1st Did you make a deed for the land sold by you.

and spoken of in your examination in chief? if yea, please state to whom you conveyed that land.
2d If you sold the land to William T. Dove, as testified to in your examination in chief, please state why you conveyed the same to Mrs Ann W. Dove?
3d Did or not Mr Wm T. Dove state to you at any time when contracting for said land, that he was purchasing it for Mrs Ann W. Dove?
4th How long after the sale of said land as made by you, and testified to, before you made a Deed for the same?
5th Can you state, positively, that at the time of sale of said land, nothing was said about the purchase being for Mrs Ann W. Dove, and the deed being made to her?
6th Can you state, positively, what conversation did take place at the time of the sale of said land, or has the conversation that then occurred escaped your memory from the lapse of time?

George Peter & Thos Anderson,
Solrs for defendants

Cross Interrogatories propounded to Henry Waight on the part of the defendants.
1st Are you sure that Mrs Ann W. Dove was present at the first interview with you, in relation to the sale of the land, spoken of by you in your examination in chief? and if present, was any thing said by her in relation to the purchase? and if any thing was said by her, please state what.
2d Can you state, with positive certainty what was said at the first interview, in relation to the sale of said land?
3rd Was any money paid at the first interview you have spoken of in relation to the sale?
4th Did you give a receipt for the money then paid?
5th If your memory is so treacherous and uncertain as to the payment of the money & giving a receipt, how is it that you recollect with so much certainty, a conversation, as detailed by you, after the lapse of so long a time?
6th Have you had any conversations, within a short period of time, with any person, in relation to what transpired on the occasion of the sale? if yea, please state with whom & when.
7th Have you never stated in Mr Wm B. Webb's office on the 6th day of May 1869, that on the day of the sale of the land, testified to by you, that you were so overjoyed & bewildered at effecting the said sale, you had no recollection of what did occur on that day?
8th Where did the conversation occur at, which you have detailed, in relation to Mr William T. Dove providing a