following exceptions to the aforesaid testimony, to wit;
the complainants in the above entitled cause, by H. W. Talbott, their solicitor, except to the 3d & 13 Intys. & answers thereto, to William T. Dove, for the following reasons;
1st Because they are not the best evidence the nature of the case admits of.
2d Because they detail conversations with & speaks of instructions from Mrs Ann W. Dove, and to A. W. Denham, and there is no proof that they were in the presence of the complainants or any of them, or any person acting for them.

H. W. Talbott
Solr for Complnts.

And on the 9th day of February 1870, there were filed in Court here, the following exceptions to the testimony of Henry Haight, to wit;
The defendant excepts to the admissibility of so much and such parts of the deposition of Henry Haight, a witness examined on the part of the complainants — as professes to prove (in answer to the 2d interrogatory in chief) what William T. Dove said on the way to Rockville in regard to having the papers made out in Mrs Dove's name, so as she might have a home, in case of any accident happening to him, that he intended to buy it & give it to her, or make it a present to her, for the following reasons;
1st Because the declarations of William T. Dove were made out of the presence of Ann W. Dove, & not assented to by her,
2d Because no unauthorized declaration or assertion of William T. Dove is proper evidence to affect the rights of Ann W. Dove.

George Peter.
Thomas Anderson,
Solrs for Ann W. Dove.

And on the 5th day of March 1870, there were filed in Court here the following exceptions to the testimony of Alexander W. Denham, to wit;
The complainants except to the 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th & 8th interrogatories in chief propounded to Alexander W. Denham & answers thereto, to wit;
To 3d Because it is too general & uncertain.
To 4th because it is not the best evidence of Wm. T. Dove's solvency, that the case will admit of.
To 5th Because the witness, instead of testifying to facts, gives his thoughts and opinions.
To 6th, 7th & 8th - Because they detail conversations between William T. Dove & witness, and instructions from W. T. Dove, to witness, and witnesses acts, which were not in the presence of the complainants or any of them, nor assented to by any of them.

And to all of the foregoing interrogatories & answers thereto, because they are irrelevant, and have no bearing on the case.
The complainants also except to the 3d & 7th Intys. in chief to Thomas D. Evans, a witness produced on the part of the defendants, and his answers thereto,
To 3d because it is irrelevant.
To 7th Because it gives witnesses impressions & not facts.
The complainants also except to so much of the answer to the 3d Interrogatory in chief, to William T. Dove, a witness produced on the part of the defendants, as relates to the said William T. Dove & wife, visiting Mr & Mrs Evans, and all conversations between Mrs Dove & Mrs Evans, Wm T. Dove & Mrs Dove, and all conversations between the said parties respectively, or orders from Mrs Dove to Mr Wm T. Dove; and also to so much as relates to money owed to Thomas Syddall. Because, first of irrelevancy, secondly said conversations & orders were not, in the presence of complainants or any of them, or assented to by them or any of them, and thirdly, because it is not the best evidence the case will admit of —
The complainants also except to the 18th Interrogatory in chief to said Wm T. Dove & answer thereto, because of irrelevancy, secondly, because it is not the best evidence the case will admit of, thirdly, because it details conversations with and orders to A. W. Denham, which were not in the presence of complainants, or any of them, or assented to by them or any of them.
The complainants also except to so much of answers to 5th & 6th cross interrogatories, as speak of money having been borrowed by Mrs Dove, because it is not responsive to interrogatory. —
The complainants except to so much of the answer to 7th Inty. in chief, to Thomas Syddall, a witness produced by complainants, as speaks of loaning money to Mrs Dove, because it is not responsive to interrogatory.
Also to so much of answer to 10th Inty to said witness, as details what Wm T. Dove told him, because not in presence of complainants.
The complainants also except to answer to 2d cross — interrogatory to Osborn L. Wilson a witness produced by complainants. Because he does not testify to facts but gives suppositions.
~~The complainants except to the answer to the eighth~~ —
