To the Voters of District No. 2,
of Talbot County:

I BEG leave most respectfully to offer myself as an independent candidate for Overseer of the Roads in District No. 2 of Talbot County. I have served first and last thirty-two years as Overseer under the old road system. I served twenty-two years without intermission, and am now in commission. I think I may say this service for public good with the small pay heretofore attached to the office, gives me some small claim to your support now that the office will pay a moderate remuneration. Your obedient servant,

MORDECAI OXENHAM.

SYRACUSE, Oct. 5.

New York Whig State Convention.—The Whig State Convention met here to-day, and was called to order by Hon. E. D. Morgan, and General Bruce appointed temporary chairman. Gen. B. made an appropriate speech, urging the necessity of harmony, and after appointing a committee to nominate permanent officers the Convention adjourned until 2, P. M.

The Convention reassembled this afternoon, and Washington Hunt was appointed President of the Convention. After organization, J. M. Cook was nominated as Comptroller; Edridge E. Spalding, Treasurer; E. W. Leavenworth, Secretary of State, and Ogden Hoffman, Attorney General.

GEORGIA ELECTION.—An election for Governor, State Legislature, Members of Congress, &c, took place in Georgia on Monday. In 42 counties heard from, Jenkins, whig, has 1391 majority over Johnson, dem. In 1849, Towns, dem., was elected by 3000 majority, and in these counties had 834 majority over Hill, whig. Jenkins' gain 2,225. The indications are that Jenkins is elected Governor by about 2,000 majority. Seward, dem., is probably elected to Congress in the 1st District; Colquith, dem., in the 2d, and Stephens, whig, in the 8th. The indications are that the democrats will have the Legislature.

STABLER'S "GOOD MEDICINES" are popular with all who know of them. Their "CHERRY EXPECTORANT" is admirable for COUGHS, &c., and their DIARRHŒA CORDIAL is the best remedy for diseases of the Bowels now extant.

PRICES CURRENT.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.

GRAIN.—The Grain market early in the morning, on 'change, was rather dull. About 20,000 bushels Wheat offered and mostly sold at 1 33a$1 35 for red, to 1 38a$1 42 per bushel for good to prime white. Very choice white wheat, for family flour, 1 43a$1 44 per bushel. Inferior lots brought 3 to 8 cents per bushel less. After the Arabia's news became public, holders were asking higher prices, but the market was unsettled. About 11,000 bushels Corn offered and mostly sold at 71a72 cents per bushel for white; no yellow sold. After the news it was held higher. Rye 75 a 77 cents per bushel. Oats 38a40 cents.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.

GRAIN comes in slowly, and the market for Wheat is about stationary, with further sales of 4000a5000 bushels prime Pennsylvania white for shipment at 150 cents, to arrive, and 3000a4000 bushels prime reds, including about 1000 bushels Southern, at 140 cents. Rye is scarce, and wanted at 85a86 cts. Corn is active, and further sales of 4000a5000 bushels Delaware and Pennsylvania yellow are reported at 80 a 81 cents. Oats are firm, with sales of 4500 bushels Southern at 42 cts.
