October Term, 1882.

14. To the fourteenth interog. The interest in this farm was the only property I then had, or have had since.
15. To the fifteenth interog. I do not think it can be divided to advantage, because the buildings are all on one part, and the farm is too small.

James L. Goodwin, a witness of lawful age, produced by the complainants, being duly sworn to interogatories filed by the complainants with the commission and herewith returned, deposes and says:
1. To the first interog. I am acquainted with all the parties to this suit, and have known them four or five years; I am the plaintiff and the husband of the co-plaintiff, Mary M.; Julia A. the defendant, is the own aunt of my wife, Maria, and she is the wife of the defendant, A. A. White.
2. To the second interog. We were married November 8th, 1876; Mrs. Julia A. White and Alphonso A. White were married in the Spring or Summer of 1877.
3. To the third interog. Deponent looks at "Exhibit M. A. G. No 1," and says: I do not.
4. To the fourth interog. After I was married I heard of this deed, and at my wife's request I went to Baltimore, I think in January, 1877, to see her aunt Julia, who was then unmarried; I went to her house, and told her my wife wished me to ask whether she intended to sign that property back to her, or not; I told her that my wife was dissatisfied, she got up and walked the floor, and says, I have an honest heart; she did not intend to cheat Mary Maria out of one cent; then I said, why dont you sign Molly's part back to her? I told her if she did, I would never interfere, or have anything to do with it as long as she lived; she then said she would go to Bannon's office on Monday, and if Bannon told her to sign it back, she would; and she said then she would write a letter to my wife, and satisfy her.

October Term, 1882.

5. To the fifth interog. I was acquainted with her; she is dead; died on or about March, 1876, and left a last will and testament.
6. To the sixth interog. She died possessed jointly with sister Julia, of a tract of land in the Fourth Election District of Anne Arundel County, near Jessup's Cut, containing about one hundred acres of land, adjoining the lands of William Disney, Henry Bell, William Gaylor and Joshua Owens; the land is now rented to John Harman.
7. To the seventh interog. I do not think the property can be divided to advantage.
8. To the eighth interog. I think it ought to be worth twenty dollars per acre; I think a fair rent for it per year would be about $100.00.

Benjamin Goodwin, a witness of lawful age, produced by the complainants, being duly sworn to special interogatories filed by the complainants with the commission, and herewith returned, deposes and says:
1. To the first interog. The complainant, James A. Goodwin, is my son, and the husband of the complainant, Maria.
2. To the second interog. I am; it lies in the Fourth Election District of Anne Arundel County, adjoining the land of William Disney, Henry Bell, Joshua Owens and William Gaylor, near Jessup's Cut, containing about one hundred acres more or less.
3. To the third interog. I think not; to make a division of it, would throw the buildings all on one part, and the principal part of the water would go with the buildings, and the wood would all go to itself, in the other tract, with poorer water, and one part could not be reached without going through the other.

Mary M. Goodwin, the witness heretofore examined by the complainants, was then cross-examined by the defendants, by questions and answers as follows:
1. Was Louisa Disney living with William Disney, or was William Disney living with Louisa and Julia?
Ans. Louisa was living with William Disney; I was living with William Disney.
