October Term, 1882.

-in-chief, the farm is worth three thousand dollars, you think; what Knowledge have you about the value of land, and do you Know what the farm is assessed at?
Ans. I think the farm is worth three thousand dollars; I have not much Knowledge about the value of land generally; I don't who what it is assessed at.
65. Is not this 100 acres situated and bending on the public road?
Ans. Yes, the county road goes thro' the farm.
66. Could not this farm be divided so as to allow both divisions to front on the county road?
Ans. I believe it could be, but it would throw the buildings on one side, and the other would be poor land, without buildings.
67. Is not the house itself, old and dilapidated, and built long before you or I could remember, and have the appearance of being built shortly after the time of the Flood?
Ans. Yes, the house is getting old, but I have seen many a worse house than that; it was built before I could remember, but I am not very old.
68. You said, in answer to a previous interrogatory, that the gentleman who read the deed to you, read it so fast you could not understand it; did he read in an unusual manner?
Ans. He read it very (very) fast, and he read so I could not understand him; he read it faster than I am accustomed to hearing people read.
69. Did you hear him speak any that day?
Ans. I cannot recollect; I am unacquainted with him, and have not heard him speak since.
70. You say your aunt asked you if you understood that man, and you said you did not, and she said she did not either; where were you when that conversation took place?

Ans. In front of Mr. Bannon's office, on the street.
71. Did you, at that time, ask your aunt to explain what the paper meant?
Ans. No.
72. Why did you not make inquiries between the date of the deed, July 19th, and the month of November, when you got married, if you did not do so?
Ans. The reason I didn't was, because the people in the neighborhood told me my aunt would cheat me out of it, and I then went to her to inquire about it, because I did not think my aunt would cheat me, and I did not think there was any necessity to inquire about it
73. Do you remember your aunt paying me for drawing that deed?
Ans. She gave Mr. Bannon some money that day.
74. What time, and where, did she tell us not to say anything about it?
Ans. Same day in the office.
75. Was Mr. Gallagher present when that conversation took place?
Ans. I don't recollect of his being present.
Henry Bell, a witness of lawful age, produced by the complainants, being duly sworn, deposes as follows, according to the following questions and answers;
1. State your age, and where you live, and whether, or not, you know the parties to this suit?
Ans. I live in Anne Arundel County, and am over 21 years of age; I know all the parties to this suit.
2. Did you, or not, in June 1876, or about that time,
