Ans. I have heard her 7th answer-in chief read, and it is correct.

5. How long was it before the deed was executed you came to the country to see Mary Maria about it?

Ans. I came out on Saturday to my brother William Disney's, and the 4th of July was on Monday; I think I went back to Baltimore on the 5th.

6. State, on what day the conversation about the conveyance of the property took place, where it took place, who was present, and what was said?

Ans. It took place on Monday morning, July 4th, out in a piece of woods where the house; no grown person present, but the children playing all around; she said, aunt Lala, I want to give you my property; I said to her, "well," which was all the answer I made; she said she felt like she would like me to have it, as I had the control of it, and it was my sister's in the first place; she asked me to come to Baltimore and see Mr. Bannon if it could not be deeded to me; she did not say that day why she wanted me to have it.

7. Was that all that was said about it on that occasion, while you were in the country?

Ans. That was all the conversation that took place between us on that occasion.

8. What day did you go to Mr. Bannon's office to see him, the first time, in regard to have the deed drawn?

October Term 1882.

Ans. I don't know what day; I could not say; I know it was a short time after I got back to Baltimore - as soon as my business would - me.

9. What did you tell Mr. Bannon when you first went to see him?

Ans. I gave him my sister's will, at Mary Maria's request, and asked him if her property could be made over by her to me.

10. Did you, on that occasion, tell Mr. Bannon why she was going to make it over to you, and did you tell him how much you were to pay for it?

Answer. No.

11. What property did Mary Maria Disney own, at that time, besides her interest in the land; state as near as you can come to it, the amount she had?

Ans. She had some cash money; I don't know how much; she got some from my father; she got some from her own father; I don't know how much she had; I can't tell; she had no land.

12. Did she have as much as five hundred dollars?

Ans. I don't think she had.

13. What day did Mary Maria come to Baltimore to have the deed executed?

Ans. The day before the execution of the deed.

The commission then adjourned, to meet at the same place, on Tuesday morning, August 9th, 1881, at 10, A. M.; at which time and place it accordingly met, and, in the presence of the solicitors for the parties, the following proceedings were had:

Mrs. Lala A. White was recalled, and her cross-examination by complainants continued, as follows:

14. The first day you called to see Mr. Bannon about the
