deed, did you, or not, say anything about paying fifty dollars for the land?

Ans. The first day I went to Mr. Bannon's, I said nothing about the deed at all; I only asked him if it could be conveyed from her to me.

15. When was the fifty dollars consideration first mentioned, and by whom?

Ans. It was spoken of by Mr. Bannon, the day the deed was drawn.

16. Did Mary Maria Disney tell him to put the fifty dollars consideration in the deed?

Ans. I don't know whether she did, or not.

17. Mr. Bannon prepared the deed, and then he told Mary Maria about the fifty dollars, and she agreed to accept it?

---

18. There was no agreement then between you and Mary Maria Disney, as to the price to be paid for the land, before you went to Mr. Bannon's office?

Ans. No, sir.

19 Did you not know very well, that the land was worth a great deal more than $50?

Ans. Yes, I knew it.

20. How could you agree to take it for that sum?

Ans. She gave it to me for nothing, to clear her conscience.

21. The fifty dollars then, was not the consideration for which the land was deeded to you?

Ans. Of course she said nothing about the fifty dollars, but Mr. Bannon told her that inasmuch as she was willing to give it to me, she ought to have some consideration for it, and he then proposed that I should pay her the sum of fifty dollars, which she agreed to accept.

22. Did you, in fact, ever pay her any money for the land?

Ans. By her direction, I gave the money to Mr. Bannon for her.

23. When did you give Mr. Bannon the money?

Ans. I can't say more than I have already said; I did not keep the date in my head, but I thought it was done directly after the deed.

24. Did you take a receipt from Mr. Bannon for the money; if yes, produce it?

Ans. Yes, sir; I haven't the receipt, but my husband has, and will produce it.

25. Why was the receipt so worded that the money was to be returned to you if not accepted?

Ans. No, sir; I can't tell what is in the receipt.

26. Did you, or not, assist Mary Mr. Disney in procuring and making her wedding clothes?

Ans. I made it for her.

27. Did she, or not, spend all the money she had in buying her wedding outfit, or at least nearly all of it?

Ans. I don't know whether she did, or not.

28. Did you not bring some of her wedding outfit to her from Baltimore, the day of the wedding or the day before the wedding?

Ans. Yes, the morning she left home.

29. Have you received the rent for the land in dispute since your sister's death; if so, state how much you have received?

Ans. I received some; the year my sister died and before the deed to me was drawn up, I drew the rents for that year before they were due, and used them buying morning dresses for Mary Maria and myself; I have
