oftener than his counsel?

Ans. I have not.

13. You say in your examination in rebuttal, that you had four conversations with Mr. Bannon about this transaction, one in March 1877, one a week later, one at Bannon's gate, and one in the cars; state which was first and the order in which they took place?

Ans. The first one was at Mr. Bannon's house, the second one was at the Cut, the third one was at the gate, and the fourth on the cars; I am not positive, but I think to the best of my knowledge, going up to Baltimore.

14. When you went up to Mr. Bannon's house what room did you enter?

Ans. I don't think we entered either of the doors; I think the conversation took place at the buggy.

15. Who was with you?

Ans. Mary Maria Goodwin.

16. Did she get out of the buggy?

Ans. I can't say; I don't remember.

17. Were you not examined in-chief in this case, before the death of Mary Maria Disney?

Ans. I don't recollect whether I was or was not; not in chief that is, the second time.

18. Were you examined a second time in chief, on July 5th, 1881?

Ans. I was.

19. Did you at either of these examinations, state anything about the four conversations with Mr. Bannon; if not, why not?

Ans. I think not; they were not asked me.

20. When you went to Bannon's house; did you not state that you went into his dining-room; wait with him into his office?

(This question was objected to by the solicitors for the complainants, for the reason that time and place, and the persons with whom held, are not given.)

Ans. Well, it has been so long since, that my memory does not serve me positively.

21. Was it not a fact that you went into Bannon's dining-room, while Mary Maria Goodwin went into his office?

Ans. I think not.

22. What time of day or night did you call, with Mary Maria Goodwin, at Bannon's house, as stated by you the first time?

Ans. I am not positive about that; it was either early in the morning, or in the evening, after the cars returned from Baltimore, after 5 O'clock; I recollect it was always late when Mr. Bannon returned from Baltimore.

23. How did you go to Bannon's house?

Ans. We drove in a buggy.

24. How did you make known your presence there, when you arrived?

Ans. I almost always saw some person about there, and called out to know if Mr. Bannon was at home.

25. Did you ring the bell; is that not the usual way you found out whether he was at home, or not?

Ans. I don't recollect.

26. How many times have you been altogether, at Bannon's house?

Ans. The number is so large I can't recollect.

27. Did Bannon ever appear at the door, to let you in?

Ans. Oh, he has done it on other occasions, but not in relation
