you approach near the house, you encounter a circle, which side of the circle and house did you pass, on the north or south side?

Ans. I passed the north side.

2. Will you state on which side of the house is the office?

Ans. The office is on the south side.

3. As you walked up the circle, did you turn the circle towards the front door, or did you keep on the road leading by the north end of the house?

Ans. I came a little towards the front door, and did turn the circle towards the front door, and then took the road, the north side of the house.

4. Did you go round the circle as far as the front door?

Ans. I did.

5. Did you go any further that way?

Ans. No. I did not.

6 How long is it since that night?

Ans. About four or five years; I recollect it was a Saturday night, but I don't recollect the time exactly; it might have been five years ago; it was the year I lived on Genl. Bond's farm.

7. Is not the road you speak of, a private road, leading through to Mrs. Elgey's place?

Ans. It is a private road, leading to Mr. Bannon's orchard.

8. Is there not a fence the whole way between, without any gate or opening on the line between Mrs. Elgey and Mr. Bannon?

Ans. There is now, but was not then; there was some kind of fence there, but down in many places, and down where I went over; since then Mrs Elgey and Mr. Bannon have put up a new fence.

9. What season of the year was it, the night you speak of?

Ans. I can't recollect.

10. Did you, or not know, that Mr. Bannon forbid any person from passing his private grounds and orchard?

Ans. I never did.

11. Was there not a road leading from Mr. Bannon's gate, parallel with and twenty perches distant from Mr. Bannon's avenue, leading up your house, Genl Bond and others, open to the public, without trespassing on the lands of Mr. Bannon?

Ans. There was then, and is now.

12. Have you been to Mr. Bannon's since the day after that occasion?

Ans. I don't think I have ever been in his house since then.

James L. Goodwin was then recalled by the complainants, to interrogatories herewith set down, and examined thereto by the complainants, and deposes as follows:

Ques. 1. State why the letter which was produced at the last meeting of this commission, signed Emma and Julia A. Disney, directed to your wife, was not produced and given in evidence in your former examination?

Ans. I knew that I had the letter and I looked for it several times, and I could not find it; and I was looking for a wheelwright's bill among some papers, and while I was looking for it, I found the letter and brought it down.

Note by the Commissioner:- At the request of the complainants' solicitors, the Commissioner notes, that at the last meeting of the commission, after Mrs. Augusta H. Duvall had been examined in chief in the
