October Term 1882.

per annum; state also, if you know, what said farm has rented for since the death of your aunt, Louisa?

14. State what property you owned on the said 19th day of July, 1876, and what property you have had since, or now own?

15. State whether or not, in your opinion, said property is susceptible of division to advantage, between you and your aunt, Julia; if not, state your reason for said opinion?

Interrogatories to James L. Goodwin:

1st. Are you, or not, acquainted with the parties to this suit; if yea, how long have - known - and each of them, and what relation do you bear to the parties, and the parties to each other?

2d. When were you and Mary M. Disney married; and when were Julia A. Disney and Dr. Alphonso A. White married?

3d. Do you know anything in regard to the execution of the deed, dated July 19th, 1876, now shown you, marked M.A.E. No. 1?

4th. State when and how you first had any knowledge of said deed, and what you did in consequence thereof, if anything?

5th. Were you or not acquainted with Louisa A. Disney, late of Anne Arundel County; if yea state whether she is dead or alive; if dead, when and where she died, and whether she died testate or intestate?

6th. Did the said Louisa die seized and possessed of any real estate in said county; if yea, describe it?

7th. State whether or not, in your opinion, said real estate is susceptible of partition to advantage, between Julia A. Disney, now Julia A. White, and your wife, Mary M. Goodwin?

8th. State in your opinion, the value of said undivided tract of land, also, what you think would be a fair rent for it,

October Term 1882.

per annum?

Interrogatories to Benjamin Goodwin:

1st. State your relation to the parties to this suit?

2nd. Are you acquainted with the real estate heretofore referred to by the witnesses, James L. Goodwin and Mary M. Goodwin; if yea, describe it, and state what you think it is worth?

3d. State whether, or not, in your opinion, said real estate is susceptible of partition to advantage between Julia A. White and Mary M. Goodwin; and if not, state your reasons therefor?

Jas. H. Hodges
Complainants' solicitor.

On the 31st March, 1882, copy of will filed in words, to wit:

I bequeath unto my niece, Mary Maria Disney, all my property, both real and personal, and if she dies without heirs or heir, I devise the same to my sister, Julia Ann Disney. And I hereby constitute and appoint my sister, Julia Ann Disney, sole executrix of this, my last will and testament, confirming this and none other.

Given under my hand, this eleventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

Louisa Ann Disney, (Seal)

Signed, sealed and delivered by the said Louisa Ann Disney, as her last will and testament, and by her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, we set our names as witnesses thereto.

Owen Disney,
Henry C. Bell,
Owen A. Disney.

Anne Arundel County, Set: 16th, May, 1876.

Then came Owen Disney, Henry C. Bell and Owen A. Disney,