Hester Ann Chase, Richard Moale Chase and William Hallon Chase, (being children of his son, Richard Moale Chase.) That of the said thirteen grandchildren, Hester Ann Lockerman subsequently intermarried with William Harwood, and both are respondents to this bill; Matilda Chase Lockerman intermarried with Lyde Goodwin McKim, survived him, and died his widow on February 16th 1865, having previously made and published her last will and testament in writing, duly executed and attested so as to pass and convey real estate in Maryland, of such tenor and effect, as appears by a true copy thereof, marked Complainants' "Exhibit O," herewith filed, and prayed to be taken as part of this bill; and the Lucy M. Harwood and Hester Ann Harwood, nieces of the testatrix, named in the said will, as well as the above named Hester Ann Harwood, (who is the same therein mentioned as sister of the said testatrix,) are respondents to this bill; Jeremiah Townley Lockerman, Francis Townley Lockerman and Catherine Chase Lockerman, have all died unmarried, without issue and intestate; Townley Chase Lockerman is a lunatic, and person non compos mentis, whereof, the before named William Harwood is the duly appointed and legally constituted committee, and both he and his said committee are respondents to this bill; Hester Ann Chase, daughter of Matilda Chase and Thomas Chase, intermarried with Samuel Ridout, and both are respondents to this bill, as is likewise Matilda Chase, sister of the said Hester Ann Ridout; Frances Catherine Townley Chase has died, unmarried without issue and intestate; William Hallon Chase is one of your orators; Jeremiah Townley Chase intermarried with your oratrix, Sarah Chase, and subsequently died intestate, leaving as issue your orator, Eugene M. Chase, and your oratrix, Emma B. Chase, by marriage, Emma B. Fleming, who subsequently intermarried with your orator, Charles Fleming, and Sallie C. Chase, who is still an infant, and is made a party respondent to this bill; Richard Moale Chase is a respondent to this bill, and Hester Ann Chase, daughter of Richard Moale Chase, has died, unmarried, without issue and intestate; that neither Frances T. Lockerman, nor Matilda Chase, daughters of the testator, Jeremiah Townley Chase, above mentioned, had any other or further issue, born after the death of the said testator, but Richard Moale Chase, son of the said testator, had as such further issue, born after the said death, a son, Thomas B. Chase, and a daughter Sallie Chase, who are respondents to this bill.

That letters of administration with the will annexed upon the estate of the within Ross Winans, were duly granted by the Orphans' Court of this city to Ferdinand C. Latrobe, a party respondent to this bill, as appears by a certificate thereof, under the seal of the said Court, marked "Complainants' Exhibit P;" herewith filed, and prayed to be taken as part of this bill, and the said Ferdinand C. Latrobe assumed the duties and responsibilities of sole executor of the last will and testament of the said Ross, and letters testamentary upon the estate of the said Thomas Winans, were duly granted by the Orphans' Court aforesaid, to the said Ross R. Winans, as appears by a certificate thereof, under the seal of the said Court, marked Complainants' Exhibit Q," herewith filed, and prayed to be taken as part of this bill, and the said Ross R. assumed the