received by my executors and paid over to my daughters respectively, as entitled, and that the stock be sold and principal received, whenever my daughters or either of them should request it, and paid to them for their exclusive use and benefit. In case my personal estate and the land appropriated to the payment of my debts and legacies, should be insufficient for the said purpose, I will and direct that the deficiency be supplied out of the residuum of my estate, as my executors may think it right. I do hereby appoint my dear sons Richard W. Chase and Richard I. Crabb, executors of this my last will and testament, revoking all former wills and codicils by me made. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this twenty-sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three.

Jeremiah Townley Chase. (Seal.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Jeremiah Townley Chase, the testator, as and for his last will and testament, and attested by us, the subscribing witnesses, in his presence, and at his request, and in the presence of each other.

William S. Green,
John W. Duvall,
William Winchester.

Complainants' Exhibit C.

By this, my codicil to my last will and testament, I will and devise to my dear son Richard W. Chase, and his heirs, after the death of my dear daughter Hester Ann, my dwelling house, and the ground and out-houses belonging to it. I will and bequeath unto my granddaughter Matilda Lockerman, and grandson Jeremiah Lockerman, ten shares in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, to each five shares, and to the survivor of them; and I will and direct the dividends to be paid to my dear daughter Frances, during the minority of each, to be expended by her for their use. the above shares were intended for them by their dear grandmother. I will and bequeath unto my dear daughter Hester Ann, during her life, all my household and kitchen furniture, my plate excepted, which is disposed of by my will. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this seventh day of May, 1824.

Jeremiah Townley Chase.
(Seal.)

Published and declared by the testator to be the codicil to his last will and testament, and attested by us, in his presence, and at his request.

William S. Green
R. I. Coleman.
Edwin Harwood,

Complainants' Exhibit D.

By this, my second codicil to my last will and testament, I will and direct as follows: whereas, by my last will and testament I have devised and bequeathed sixty shares in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland to my dear daughter Hester Ann Chase, and to my grandchildren Matilda Lockerman and Jeremiah Lockerman, ten shares by my first codicil, and having applied the said stock to the payment of a judgment obtained by the said bank against my son-in-law Thomas Chase. I will, devise and bequeath unto my said daughter Hester Ann, the sum of three thousand dollars, and to my grandchildren Matilda and Jeremiah Lockerman, two hundred and fifty dollars each,