2X quest. Where was your brother living at the time of his marriage?

Ans. 61 Thames street.

3X quest. Who is the John Edward Kirby who was married to Catherine McCormick by the Rev. H. Best, at the above date?

Ans. I do not Know.

4X quest. Did you see an account of your brother's marriage on the 24th day of July, 1854, in the "Baltimore Sun?"

Ans. Not to my Knowledge.

5X quest. Do you Know that his marriage was put in the "Sun," as that of J. Edward Kirby to Catherine McCormick?

Ans. No, sir.

6X quest. Do you recollect a suit in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, of Edward Kirby, complainant, against James Smith and Catherine Smith, James T. Kirby and Rebecca, his wife, John E. Kirby and Kate Kirby, his wife, Frances Ann Towns, Elizabeth Wayson and others?

Ans. I do not Know of any such proceedings; never heard of it; I Know of signing one paper about a piece of property on Ann street - a power of attorney authorizing Thos W. Griffin to sell that one piece of property.

7X quest. Look at Respondent's Commission Exhibits, Numbers -", being releases numbers one and two, and state in whose handwriting the signature are?

Ans. They are not in my handwriting, and I never saw the papers before, and I do not Know in whose handwriting the signature, John E. Kirby, is.

8X quest. Look at the signatures, James T. Kirby and John E. Kirby, in Respondent's Exhibit Commission No -, 1874," and say, if Known to you, in whose handwriting the said signatures are?

Ans. Do not Know any of them; I never wrote my name, and my sister's name is not in her handwriting.

9X quest. Do you recollect going before Justice John T. Farlow, and acknowledging the paper writing, "Release Number One," to be your act and deed?

Ans. Never was before him to sign anything.

10X quest. Do you Know John T. Farlow, Justice of the Peace?

Ans. I am perfectly acquainted with him.

11X quest. Do you recollect any, and what amount of money, you received from Thomas W. Griffin, the trustee in the above mentioned case?

Ans Not one cent.

12X quest. Do you say that the names of James T. Kirby, signed to "Release Number One," was not authorized by you?

Ans. It was not.

13X quest. Do you say that the signature is a forgery?

Ans. I never signed or saw it before.

14X quest. Is the signature of James T. Kirby, signed to paper-writing marked "1874," a forgery?

Ans. Yes, sir; I never signed it or saw it before.

15X quest. Whose handwriting is the signature, Edward Kirby, signed to the bill of complaint, 1874?

Ans. Do not Know.

16X quest. Do you Know by what name your brother was baptized?

Ans. I do not, I was not there; nobody ever Knew him by any other name than Edward; that is the name he was Known by all the family.

17X quest. Do you Know of any other John Edward Kirby, or any other Catharine McCormick, who intermarried with each other, on the 20th of July, 1854, than your brother and his wife, defendants in this suit?

Ans. No, sir; I do not Know of any other Kirby and McCormick, only those two.