9 ques. Do you recollect a woman by the name of Elizabeth Holt?
Ans. That was her name.
10 quest. Was that the name of the woman who took him to be christened?
Ans. Yes, sir.
11 quest. Was she employed in your family at that time?
Ans. She used to work about, and come to my house.
12 quest. Was she employed at your house at all?
Ans. She done what work there was to do about the house, when she was there.
13 quest. Do you recollect the marriage of your son, John Edward, with Catherine or Kate McCormick, and the name of the minister who married them?
Ans. Preacher Best married them - a Methodist preacher.
Commission adjourned to June 30th, 1879, at 11 Oclock A.M.
Edward Kirby, Senior, heretofore examined on behalf of the respondent, Frances Ann Towns recalled and examined on the behalf.
14 quest. Do you recollect when Mrs. Robinson lived in the house 303 E. Pratt st., and about when she left?
Ans. I don't recollect the year, but recollect she was there; don't know when she left.
15 quest. To whom did she pay the rent, and did she take receipts therefor?
Ans. Sometimes to me, and sometimes to my wife; yes, she took receipts.
16 quest. Look at Respondent's Commission, Exhibit E.K. No. 1," and state who gave it to you?
Ans. Mrs. Robinson gave it to me.
17 quest. How long ago.
Ans. Some three or four months ago.
18 quest. What book is this?
Ans. A receipt book.

19 quest. What are the receipts for?
Ans. House rent from Mrs. Robinson received by me.
20 quest. What house did she pay you rent for?
Ans 303 E. Pratt st; that is my signature to receipts.
21 quest. Were these receipts especially the last one given to Mrs. Robinson, on the day they are dated?
Ans. I suppose they were
22 quest. Did Mrs. Robinson remain in the house any time, after the 15th of April, 1859?
Ans. Ten days, I believe.
23 quest. From whom did you get the paper now shown you, marked Respondent's Commission E.K. No. 1?
Ans. From Mr. Robinson.
24 quest. What does that date, "April 25th, 1859," refer to?
Ans. She looked for the rent book, and that is all she found; the other, she said, she had burnt up.
25 quest. Did she say anything about the day she moved, when she gave you that paper?
Ans. No, sir. her mouth was not up when she moved, so she told me.
26 quest. How long was she living in house No. 303 E. Pratt street, to the best of your recollection?
Ans. 8 or 9 years - she was the first one who lived in the house.
27 quest. Was any one else living there, besides Mrs. Robinson and her family?
Ans. No, sir, not that I know of.
28 quest. Did you know Capt. Fonvald?
Ans. Yes sir.
29 quest. Where did he live when you knew him?
Ans. Don't know where he lived at the time, but he lived in 303 E. Pratt st. awhile.
30 quest. Do you know about how long he lived in that house?