Ans. No, sir, I do not.

31 quest. Do you know whether Capt. Farrell's wife died in that house?

Ans. They say she did.

32 quest. About how long after Capt. Farrell's wife died, was it before Capt. Farrell moved out of that house?

Ans. I don't know.

33 quest. To whom did Capt. Farrell pay rent?

Ans. Sometimes to me, sometimes to some of the family; I don't know which one — sometimes to my wife.

34 quest. Who paid the tax and insurance on 303 E. Pratt street, prior to the year 1878, when you conveyed it to Frances Ann Towns?

Ans. I did sir

35 quest. Did you pay them yourself, or send anyone to pay them?

Ans. I always paid them myself; I never sent any one to pay taxes or insurance for me.

36 quest. Did you obtain receipts for the taxes paid by you?

Ans. Yes, sir, here are the receipts — (27 receipts for taxes marked "Respondent's Commission E.K. No. 3, filed.)

37 quest. Were these receipts paid by you privately?

Ans. Yes, sir, all paid by me.

38 quest. In what insurance company did you have your property insured?

Ans. Firemen's Insurance Company. (I think more of that daughter of mine, Mrs. F. A. Towns, than I do myself.)

39 quest. Look at "Complainant's Exhibit Commission, Exhibit Firemen's Book," and state what said book is?

Ans. Insurance book.

40 quest. Did you have any other insurance on this property, than in the Firemen's Insurance Co.?

Ans. No, sir.

(Respondent's Commission Exhibit E.K. No. 4, filed)

41 quest. This book runs as a continuation of Policy No. 23427, from May 3rd 1858, to August 13th, 1878; are you able to say whether you paid personally, all the annual premiums which are entered in this book?

Ans. Yes, sir, I did.

42 quest. Who paid all the premiums endorsed on Policy E. K. No. 4?"

Ans. I did in person.

43 quest. John Edward Kirby says that he (meaning you) always came to him for money to pay taxes and water-rent, and sometimes he paid the taxes for you; did you ever go to John Edward Kirby for money to pay taxes and water-rent; did you ever send him to pay taxes for you?

Ans. Never — never, sir; he never paid any taxes for me; I always paid my own taxes.

44 quest. John Edward Kirby states, that he does not know that his father, except for the three years when he was in Washington, did not come to him to get the money to pay the taxes and water rent; did you ever go to John E. Kirby and get the money to pay the taxes on the property including 303 E. Pratt st?

Ans. No, sir; I asked him when he was building the sewer for some money, and he said he had not any.

45 quest. Did you get any money from him at that time?

Ans. No sir

46 quest. Why did you ask him for money at that time?

Ans. I thought I had better get some from him; I could if he had it.

47 quest. Do you recollect receiving a note from John E. Kirby, asking you for the loan of money?

Ans. I never received any letter from him.

48 quest. Do you recollect lending your son, John E. Kirby, any sum of money?

Ans. I recollect lending him six or seven hundred dollars at time.