Ans. Yes, sir.

81 quest. Look at last will and testament of Edward Kirby, now shown you, marked Exhibit E.K. No. 6; and say whether you are the Edward Kirby professing to make said will, and who has signed the same?

Ans. That is my will to my deaf and dumb daughter, and that is my signature to it; it has been drawn up some time.

82 quest. This will is dated December 27th, 1871; was it executed on that day?

Ans. I believe it was.

83 quest. Do you remember the names of the witnesses?

Ans. Mr. Charles is one; Mr. Weedon is another, and the other I do not recollect; Mr. Weedon is dead.

84 quest. To what property did you refer in the item in said will, disposing of all your property, real, personal and mixed?

Ans. Whatever property I left behind me.

85 quest. What real property did you own at date of will?

Ans. One on Ann street - property on Pratt street.

86 quest. Who was living in property on Pratt street?

Ans. I don't know.

87 quest. Who was living in property on Pratt street, 8 years ago?

Ans. I can't think of the names of the people; Edward Kirby lived in one house.

88 quest. What other property did you own?

Ans. Two houses on Gough street; one on Gough street; one on Chippell street.

89 quest. Did you own a house on Happy alley?

Ans. Yes, sir.

90 quest. Did Frances Ann Towne have any and what knowledge of the deed to her of property, 303 East Pratt street, or of your intention to convey the same before the deed of April 1878?

Ans. Yes, sir; I couldn't tell her beforehand; I could not talk to her; that was all the property we had to live on.

91 quest. When did she first know of your having made that deed of assignment of April 1878, to her?

Ans. After the deed was made and filed, and left at Record Office.

92 quest. Did you intend this property for the support of your daughter?

(Objected to as leading)

Ans. I did.

93 quest. To whom did you intend to give 303 East Pratt street?

Ans. To my daughter Frances Ann Towne.

94 quest. Had you ever intended it for anyone else?

Ans. No, sir; the others can hear talk and work.

95 quest. Had you ever given that property to anyone else?

Ans. No, sir; I had never given it to anybody.

96 quest. Had you ever given that property to John Edward Kirby?

Ans. No, sir.

97 quest. Did you ever intend to give it to him?

Ans. No, sir; I did not.

98 quest. Had you ever agreed with your son, John Edward Kirby, to give him this property?

Ans. No, sir; I never did.

99 quest. Who had possession of the deed of property No 303 E. Pratt st?

Ans. I had.

100 quest. Who now has it?

Ans. My daughter, Mrs. Frances Ann Towne.

101 quest. When you bought the property, did you know a deed was necessary for your title?