Ans. No, sir.

118 quest. Did you ever get any coal from J. Edward Kirby; if yea, for what purpose?

Ans. He sent me five tons of coal to burn in my fire-place.

119 quest. Why did he send you that coal?

Ans. He owed me money.

120 quest. Were you aware that your son, J. Edward Kirby, mortgaged the house No. 303 E. Pratt st. in 1872?

Ans. No, sir; I never knew there was a mortgage on it; that man there, (pointing to Charles Myers.) was the first one to tell me about it.

121 quest. Did he, your son, tell you that he wanted to mortgage the property in question to Mr. Trippe?

Ans. No, sir.

Quest. 122. Did he tell you in 1878, that he wanted to extend the mortgage and put more on it; that he was getting the money at 6% instead of 8%, which he was then paying?

Ans. No, sir; he never told me.

123 quest. Your daughter-in-law has sworn that you brought and gave her the deed and policy of insurance of the house in question; in order to the making of the first mortgage, and told her that she would have to sign the mortgage, as it was fee simple property, or Neddy, meaning your son, could not get the money; is this true?

Ans. 'Taint true; I never told her.

124 quest. On going with your son to Lewis H. Robinson, the lawyer, on the day you made to Frances Ann Towne, a deed of the property in question, did you say, you had done wrong - that you were sorry you had done it?

Ans. No, sir.

125 quest. Did your son, on that occasion say, you knew he had a mortgage on the house when you made the deed to Mrs. Towne?

Ans. No, sir.

126 quest. Did you know, on the occasion of his getting the deed from you, that he wanted to extend the mortgage on the property, and put more on it?

Ans. I did not know what he wanted with it; I am a man of no education, and he led me about as he pleased.

127 quest. Did you, between the 27th and 29th April, 1877, at night, say in the presence or hearing of your son's wife, that you could not sell the house, No. 303 E. Pratt st, that it belonged to your son, Neddy?

Ans. No, sir.

128 quest. Did you, 6 or 7 years ago, or at any time, tell James Smith, that J. Edward Kirby, your son, wanted to mortgage his, the said J. Edward Kirby's house?

Ans No, sir.

129 quest. Did you, 8 or 9 years ago, or at any time, bring a Firemans' Insurance Book on this property, which has been spoken of in evidence, to your daughter-in-law, in the presence of Amelia L. Benthall, and say to her, that your son, J. Edward Kirby, would need it?

Ans. No, sir.

130 quest. Up to the time of your deed of this property to Mrs Frances Ann Towne, who was entitled to, and who had possession of the deed to the house, 303 E. Pratt street?

Ans. The property belonged to me; I was entitled to the deed; I kept the deed.

131 quest. Do you know what is the value of the improvements made by your son, J. Edward Kirby, on the said lot; when and where they were made?

Ans. No, sir. I do not.

132 quest. Did he, or not, make any addition to the building on the said lot?