20 quest. Was the child then present?
Ans. Yes, the child was present.
21 quest. By what name was J. Edward Kirby named and called in the family of his father, from the time of his birth and alleged christening?
Ans. Most all called him Edward.
22 quest. Was his full name known in the family?
Ans. Yes, sir.
23. quest. What was it?
Ans. J Edward Kirby.
24 quest Do you know whether he was called after any person?
Ans. He was named after his uncle, his mother's brother.
25 quest. Did he himself know his name was John Edward Kirby?
Ans. Yes, sir.
26 quest. Did he know he was christened?
Ans. No, sir, he was too young.
27 quest Did he know he had been christened
Ans Yes, sir.
28 quest. Did you ever hear him refer to it?
Ans. No, sir.
29 quest. Was it ever mentioned in his presence in your hearing?
Ans. Yes, time and time again, though I don't suppose he paid much attention to it.
30 quest. Was it mentioned in his presence, after he attained an age capable of understanding, that he had been christened in the Catholic Church?
Ans. Yes, certainly; many a time.
31 quest. Do you remember of being at breakfast in the month of August, 1878, when Charles R. Myers was present, and J. Edward Kirby entered the room?
Ans. Yes.

32 quest. Did anything take place between them: if so what?
Ans. Yes; they were going to kill each other, I suppose, and Myers was at his breakfast, and Mr. Ed. Kirby came in and told Myers, that if he did not let his name be, he would kill him, or Myers should kill him.
33 quest. What did E. Kirby say when he came into the room; give his language as near as you can?
Ans. He said if Myers did not stop handling his name, he would blow his brains out.
34 quest. Did he say how Myers handled his name?
Ans. No, sir.
35 quest. Was nothing said of forgery?
Ans. Myers' reply was, that is all right, sir, and Kirby went out; that is every word he said.
36 quest. Didn't Edward Kirby tell Myers, that if he didn't stop saying that he forged his father's name, he would kill Myers?
Ans. Yes, sir.
37 quest. What did Myers apply to that?
(Objected to as leading)
Ans. All he said was that is all right.
38 quest. Did not Myers say to him that he had forged (that he had forged) his father's name to a deed?
(Objected to as leading)
Ans. If he did, I did not hear it.
39 quest. Did not Kirby say that he didn't care, that he would be damned, but if he wouldn't lay in prison 20 years but what he would have that house?
Ans. Yes; that he would have satisfaction; made that reply too.
40 quest. Was anything said on this occasion about this
