Complainant's Exceptions to Testimony.
(Filed 18th October, 1882.)

Ammon Cate, vs Edward Kirby, et al	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

The complainant excepts to so much and such parts of the testimony of Catherine Smith, as is contained in the cross-interrogatories and answers, from and inclusive of the 43 x int. to the 54 int. and answer, including the 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53 and 54 int. and answers:

Because the same is wholly irrelevant and impertinent to any issue in this case.

Because, the same relate to matters entirely foreign to any issue in the case.

And also, to so much and such parts of the testimony of Oregon R. Benson, as is contained in his answer to the 3d int. from the beginning - such answer on the 212 page to the 24 line, on page 214.

Because the conversations between said Benson and said Myers and Edward Kirby, Sr., out of the presence of said complainant, or of Edward Kirby, Jr., are not evidence in the case.

Because the testimony excepted to is wholly immaterial to any issue in this case.

And also to so much and such parts of the testimony of Thomas W.

Griffin, as is contained in the 3d 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 32 int. and answers thereto:

1. Because the said testimony is wholly irrelevant to any issue in this case.

2. Because the whole of the testimony in said interrogatories and answers contained relate to matters entirely collateral, and have no bearing upon any issue in the case.

3. Because of any - intended to contradict any witness examined with reference to the same facts, they are entirely collateral, and it is not competent for the defendant to contradict the witness.

And also accepts to so much and such parts of the testimony of David W. Pollard, as is contained in the 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 int. and answers;

Because the same is irrelevant to any issue in this case.

And also accepts to so much and such parts of the testimony of John V. B. Slater, as is contained in the answer to the 2d int., beginning at the pronoun I. in the 3d line from the bottom of page 199, to the end of the answer, and also to the 3d int. and answer thereto:

1. Because the same relates to matters entirely distinct from the issues in this case.

3. Because of other reasons to be hereafter filed.

And also excepts to so much and such parts of the testimony of George W. Thompson, as is contained in the 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28 int. and answers and to the 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 x int.

1. Because said testimony is wholly irrelevant to any issue in this case.

2. Because said testimony is wholly impertinent.

And also excepts to so much and such parts of the testimony of
