a deed of the property on Exeter street, mentioned in these proceedings, was made by your neice, the mother of the Complainants about the year 1848, to Augustus W. Bradford?

4. Answer. There was a Deed made; I can't say whether that was the deed or not; I am not sure about the date of it.

Fifth interrogatory. State fully and particularly as you can, all the circumstances in your knowledge, connected with the making and the consideration of that deed?

5. Answer. All I recollect is this, that my father sent me to Frederick County to get her to sign a Deed, he valued what he supposed to be her interest in the property, and gave me the amount of money in bank notes, I think, as far as my recollection serves me it was 250 dollars I think. I gave it to Mrs. Kemp."

Sixth interrogatory, Did she execute the paper, that your father expected to get from her, in consideration of that payment;

6 Answer, She took the money and the Deed was executed.

Seventh Interrogatory. Do you know whether she refused to sign any papers until she was paid:

7 Answer. From my own knowledge I can't answer that question, but that was my understanding why she declined signing the paper, and gave her reasons for it, I think.

Eighth Interrogatory, To whom did she give those reasons.

8 Answer. What I say is all hearsay I understood it from my father, she did not say so to me.

"Cross Examined for Complainants."

First Cross Interrogatory. Where was the money you have spoken of paid to Mrs. Kemp, and where was the Deed executed by her?

1 X Answer. The money was paid to Mrs. Kemp in Frederick County, at her residence; as to where the deed was executed, I can't say; all I can say is, there was a deed executed.

Second Cross interrogatory. It is your recollection that you took the deed up with you when you went to pay Mrs. Kemp 250 dollars?

2 X Answer. I cant say; my impression is that I did; I can't say that I did, it has been so long ago.

Third Cross interrogatory. Whereabouts in Frederick County was Kemp living at the time you paid her the money referred to?

3 X Answer. I think it was a place formerly owned by Colonel Mantelby.

Fourth Cross Interrogatory. Are you clear in your recollections as to the amount of money paid by you to Mrs Kemp?

4 X Answer. Well, it has been so long, I am not clear in my recollections of its being the exact amount of 250 dollars; my impression very strong is that it was.

Fifth Cross Interrogatory. Can you recollect the year which you went to Frederick and paid Mrs. Kemp this money?

5 X Answer No, Sir

Sixth Cross Interrogatory. Was it not in the year 1856 or 57?

6 X Answer. I dont recollect.

Seventh cross interrogatory. The deed, in question, was executed in 1848; was not the visit to Frederick, and the payment of this money, at least 7 or 8 years after the execution of the deed?

7 X Answer. I can't recollect that; there may have been other money paid 7 or 8 years after that; I may have taken money to her after; I know that father made a distribution
